

and brush, one of the best read women of the day, and a devoted wife, mother and daughter.

The Crown Prince's accession to the throne places his wife and children in a position which they could not have obtained had the late Kaiser lived longer than his son. As the widow of the Crown Prince, the Princess would have had the right of only some $20,000 a year from the Prussian Government, which, added to the $40,000 a year paid to her by the British Parliament as an English princess, would have constituted her entire income, while the Princesses would not have received more than $100,000 apiece as their sole fortune. Now that the Crown Prince has become Emperor, his wife, in case of her husband's death, will inherit the dignity of Dowager Empress and her share of the vast fortunes of the Hohenzollern family, which will probably increase her yearly income of dollars to pounds.

We are pleased to announce that a large proportion of our subscribers whose time expired in the 5th month last year accepted our terms and renewed to the end of 1888. It was a great convenience to us to have them do so. In order to induce others, whose time expires with this issue, to subscribe to the end of 1889, we make the same offer, viz.: We will send the YOUNG FRIENDS' REVIEW to any address in Canada or the United States to the end of 1889 on the receipt of 70 cents, beginning with 6th month number. Ten copies $7.00, and a copy free to sender of club. Send subscriptions to S. P. ZAVITZ, Coldstream, Ont., Canada.

We earnestly solicit a renewal of their subscription by all whose time expires with this issue. Our list has gradually gained in numbers, and last winter we were enabled to make quite an advance. Still, our receipts at present barely pay for printing. We are willing to devote what little talent we have and the necessary time for its publication for some time yet, but we wish to have enough subscribers to cover expenses and make improvements in the REVIEW. We therefore, again solicit renewals and new subscribers. A publication of this nature within the narrow limits of our field is necessarily, to a certain extent, a work of love in which no pecuniary advantage accrues. We ask our friends whose time now expires to continue with us in this work of love, by renewing and by sending us new names, new friends to strengthen our hands in the work.

"SCATTERED SEEDS" A SIXTEEN page monthly for the children, published by a First-day School Association of Philadelphia, Pa. TERMS: Single copies, 50c; 10 and over to one address, 25c; 10 and over, separately addressed, and one in every ten to the person setting up club, 35c; mission clubs of 10 and over to one address, 25c. This little magazine is illustrated with well-chosen engravings, contains pure and instructive reading, and is designed to inculcate moral and religious truth. Sample copies sent on application. Address L. H. HALL, 210 East Biddle St., West Chester, Pa.

SWARTHMORE COLLEGE.

Thirty minutes from Broad street station, Philadelphia. Under the care of Friends, but all others admitted. Full college course for both sexes; Classical, Scientific and Literary. Also a Manual Training and a Preparatory School. Healthful location, large grounds, new and extensive buildings and apparatus. For catalogue and full particulars, address EDWARD H. MAGILL, A. M., Pres., Swarthmore, Pa.

CHAPPAQUA MOUNTAIN INSTITUTE.

A Boarding School for both sexes under the care of Purchase Quarterly Meeting. The present building is new and much enlarged, and has perfect sanitary arrangements. Excellent corps of instructors, broad course of study. Prepares for college. Healthfully and pleasantly located, near the Harlem R. R. One hour from New York City. For catalogue and particulars, address SAMUEL C. COLLINS, A. M., Prin., Chappaqua, N. Y.

Printed at the office of A. Talbot & Co., 324 Clarence-st., London, Canada.