PARISH NOTES

Bon voyage and a pleasant time to Mr. Kenrick, who left us on Whit Monday and expects to return for the first Sunday in August.

There is little news to chronicle, as in May most of the parochial organizations close for the summer. The Sunday School picnic is yet to come off and the date has been fixed for Monday, June 17th, and the place Bond Lake. As the expenses will amount to $40.00 we are asking for some contributions.

The Synod of the Diocese meets on June 12th, for which we are asked to provide: (a) hospitality, (b) or money, (c) 6 qts. of salad dressing and 10 doz. buns.

The beautiful flowers on the altar on Trinity Sunday were sent by Miss Harison in memoriam of her mother who died the week before. Both Mrs. Harison and her daughter were old members of St. George's and ever showed their interest in the church by many practical proofs. We give our sympathy to Miss Harison and her brothers in their great loss.
