ARTICLE 6

Delivery of Air Mail Correspondence

1.—Air Mail correspondence is delivered with the utmost rapidity possible and must at least be included in the first delivery which follows its arrival at the office of delivery.

2.—The senders have the right to request delivery by special messenger, immediately after arrival, on prepayment of the special express delivery fee prescribed by Article 45 of the Convention. This right exists only in relations between countries which have organised the express delivery service in their reciprocal relations.

3.—When the regulations of the country of destination permit, the addressees may request the delivering office to deliver Air Mail correspondence to their address immediately on its arrival. In this case the Administrations of destination are authorised to collect on delivery a special fee which may not exceed the express fee prescribed by article 45 of the Convention.

4.—On payment of a supplementary charge, Administrations may, after agreement, effect delivery by special means, in particular by the use of pneumatic tubes.

ARTICLE 7

Redirection and Return of Air Mail Correspondence

1.—Air Mail correspondence addressed to persons who have changed their address is forwarded to the new address by ordinary means of conveyance, unless the addressee has expressly asked for redirection by Air Mail and has paid in advance to the redirecting office the Air Mail fee for the new transmission. Undeliverable correspondence is returned to origin by ordinary route.

2.—If redirection or return takes place through ordinary postal channels, the Air Mail label "Par Avion" and all annotations relative to transmission by Air Mail must be struck out officially by means of two thick transverse strokes.
