

Part C. Facilities across the Mekong River

The Project includes a link in the transmission lines described in Parts A and B crossing the Mekong River, which will be owned, after construction, by the Mekong Committee in accordance with arrangements made by that Committee with Laos and Thailand.

Part D. Training

The Project also includes the training, both in Laos and overseas, of the technical staff which will be responsible for the operation of the Project.