

- c) that the airline shall not hold itself out to the public by advertisement or otherwise as providing a service which originates at the point where the change of aircraft is made, unless otherwise permitted by the Schedule of routes;
- d) that in connection with any one aircraft flight into the territory in which the change of aircraft is made, only one flight may be made out of that territory unless authorized by the Aeronautical Authority of the other Contracting Party to operate more than one flight; and
- e) that the provision of Article IX of the Agreement shall govern all arrangements made with regard to change of gauge.

I have the honour to propose that if the foregoing amendments are acceptable to your Government this Note, which is authentic in English and French, and your Excellency's reply to that effect, shall constitute an Agreement between our two governments which shall enter into force on the date of your reply.

Accept, Excellency, the renewed assurances of my highest consideration.
