

Contents

Introduction	1
A New Concept: Security for People	2
New Global Realities	2
A New Approach to Security	2
Toward a Human Security Agenda	3
Canada's Foreign Policy for Human Security
Protection of Civilians	4
War-affected Children	4
Legal and Physical Protection	4
Internally Displaced Persons	4
Human Rights Field Operations	5
Landmines	5
Humanitarian Intervention	5
Peace Support Operations	6
Peace Support Capacity	6
Expert Deployment	7
Police in Peace Support Operations	7
Conflict Prevention	8
Co-operative Conflict Prevention	8
Targeted Sanctions	8
Small Arms	9
Post-Conflict Peacebuilding	9
Governance and Accountability	10
International Criminal Court	10
Security Sector Reform	10
Corruption and Transparency	10
Freedom of Opinion and Expression	11
Democratic Governance	11
Corporate Social Responsibility	11
Public Safety	12
Transnational Organized Crime	12
Illicit Drugs	13
Terrorism	13
Building Partnerships for Human Security	14
A New Diplomacy	14
International Organizations	14
Like-Minded Coalitions	14
Non-governmental Organizations	15
The Private Sector	15
Canadian Resources to Promote Human Security	15
Challenges and Future Directions	16
Developing New Norms	16
Capacity Building to Protect People	17
Ensuring Policy Co-ordination	17
Investing in Knowledge	17
Promoting Complementary Approaches	17