

ings whenever objections are raised. The Hon. Member complained during Question Period today that this process is a three-ring circus. Would he prefer that the CTC abandon all hearings, that we not have any hearings through the CTC? Furthermore, decisions of the CTC are always appealable, first to the CTC's own review committee and ultimately through the Governor in Council. Abandonments are often delayed for years after the railways have requested them, giving the local community time to adjust to the loss of the branch line. Therefore, the Hon. Member's double whammy is not much of a whammy at all.

Adjournment Debate

The Acting Speaker (Mr. Blaker): Order. The motion to adjourn the House is now deemed to have been adopted. Accordingly, this House stands adjourned until tomorrow at 11 a.m.

At 6.30 p.m. the House adjourned, without question put, pursuant to Standing Order.