

	PAGE
Resumed—The Castle of Carbonek—The Vision—Sir Launcelot is Smitten—Sir Galahad—The Hermitage—The Damsel—They Enter a Ship—The City of Sarras—The Cripple—Sir Galahad Becomes King—The Holy Grail is Taken Up to Heaven—King Arthur's Commendation,	163-173

CHAPTER XXII.

Sir Agrivain's Treason—Deaths of Sir Galahad and Sir Perceval—Sir Bohort Returns from Sarras—Sir Launcelot Arrived at Camelot—Sir Agrivain Accuses the Queen—He is Joined by Modred—Sir Modred Plots Against Sir Launcelot and the Queen—Sir Launcelot Escapes and the Queen is Condemned to Die—Sir Launcelot Returns and Bears Her Away—Conference between King Arthur and Sir Launcelot—Sir Launcelot Spares the King's Life—The Year's Truce—The Attack on Sir Launcelot—He Spares Gawain—Sir Modred Becomes Ruler,	174-181
---	---------

CHAPTER XXIII.

Sir Modred Crowned King—King Arthur Returns to England and Disputes the Crown—The Ghost of Gawain—King Arthur's Last Battle—He is Borne from the Field—He Orders his Sword Thrown into the Sea—King Arthur is Placed upon a Barge—Three Queens Appear—He is Borne to the Vale of Avalon—The Passing of Guinevere—Guinevere Retires to a Nunnery—Her Seclusion—Visit of King Arthur—Death of the Queen—The Return of Sir Launcelot—He Meets the Queen—Becomes a Monk—His Sickness and Death—The End of La Morte d'Arthur,	182-198
--	---------

CHAPTER XXIV.

Mediaeval Legends—St. George—He Slays the Dragon—The Lia Fail—Robin Hood—His Character—His Death—Stonehenge—The Fortunate Isles,	199-207
--	---------

PART II.

CHAPTER I.

The Mabinogion—The Britons—The Welsh Language and Literature—The Welsh Bards—The Triads,	211-216
--	---------

CHAPTER II.

The Lady of the Fountain—King Arthur at Caerleon—Kynon's Story—The Two Youths with Yellow Hair—The Man with a Mantle of Gold—The Castle with Twenty-four Maidens at the Window—
---	--