BATTERED MR. COOK LEAFS HELD SAFE

Windup at Rochester Easy Victory for Hustlers-Bunched the Bingles.

ROCHESTER, N.Y., Aug. 18.—Rochester found little trouble in disposing of the Toronto nine today, Pitcher Erickson of the locals proving the big star of the afterneous amusement. of the locals proving the big star of the afternoon's amusement.
Erickson got three hits, one a double. and besides holding the Leafs safe at all stages, figured in a neat double play. The Hustlers won by bunching hits in the first, third and seventh innings. Errors greatly assisted the losing team in scoring its two runs. Cook was an easy mark for the Hustlers, who apparently felt the loss of their leader, John Ganzel, more keenly than they did yesterday. The announcement that Ganzel had gone to the Feds seemed to dishearten the team. It is rumored several of Ganzel's former advocates are preparing to seek berths in the outlaw organization. Score:

Wychwood Qualify to Meet Dunlops in Final for Robertson Cup.

OVERSEAS SOUNDLY

Wychwood beat Overseas by 4 to 0 in the semi-final Robertson Cup game at Eaton's field, and thus qualified to meet Dunlops in the final on Aug. 28. It was a very even game in the first half, Wychwood leading at half time by 1 to 0, scored by McColl. Turney (two) and Irgarfield (one) added goals for Wychwood in the second half. Overseas forwards were very weak, only Taylor showing anything near top form. The teams:

Wychwood (4)—Wilcock, Tweedie, Wilson, Cameron, Turney, McDonald, Ingarfield, Ransome, McColl, Walker, Ingarfield, Ransome, McColl, Walker, McAully.

Overseas (0)—McCoskery, Robinson, Richardson, Leslie, Rutherford, Cowan, Carter, Sim, Aitken, Townley, Taylor.

Referee—W. S. Murchie..

First Half.

Aitken kicked off for Overseas and Wychwood pressed, but Robinson cleared and set Carter going. Offside against Aitken spoiled his work. After a spell of very even play Leslie let Carter away again. This time he tried a shot, and Wilcock had to make a fine save to keep the ball out. McAully' made a nice run for Wychwood, gaining a corner, but Leslie cleared this easily. The Seas' forwards went down nicely, but Sim shot behind when well placed. Overseas were having slightly the best of it. Leslie was playing a great game at right half, repeatedly giving his forwards passes that should have been turned to account, but only Taylor was in shooting form.

Carter placed a corner finely, but Tweedie was on the job and cleared, kicking well down the field, and in a scrimmage in front of goal it looked like a sure goal for Wychwood. Cowan kicked the ball out as it was just crossing the line, a lucky escape for Overseas. Not to be denied Wychwood ocame again and McColl gave them the lead with a nice shot. Up to half time it was pretty even, the whistle going with the Woods leading 1 to 0.

THE MAN BEHIND THE GUN There's a man we see in khaki.

And as down the street he goes You would hardly turn to greet him, Human target for our foes. He has volunteered for service, 'Mid the din of battle's roar, Prepared to give his life and blood. What could he give us more? His brother, dressed in navy blue, O'er Neptune's rugged crest, Is an asset to the freedom Of the country we're possessed. Were it not for Jack and Tommy Our race would coon be run. He's the birthright of our power. He's the man behind the gun-

With firm intent in heart and mind. We ever will be free, Our wheels of commerce onward grind Our ships steer out to sea. You can follow up your business In the factory, shop or store, But remember for the price in blood Of them who shed their gore, And you who seek for pleasure In their dying hour of need, Breathe a prayer for Jack and Tommy, They're the ramparts of our breed. You may rest upon your pillow With the frest, snow, rain or sun. Thank the panther eyes that guard

He's the man behind the gun. All you folks of trades and classes Praise the lads who took your place, These volunteers once caught our sneers.

Our foemen now they'll face, Like the old yeomen of England, They will bring the foe to bear That her soldiers and her sailors Are our priceless jewels rare. Yes. there's something 'neath Or that suit of navy blue. There is blood to lose for Britain

From the noblest and the true. Be he from rich man's mansion Or from cottage rentless shun, The breed's the same, "What's in He's the man behind the gun -Lance-Corp. Wm.
