

CONTENTS

TO

HISTORY OF THE METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH

BOOK IV.

From 1792 to 1812.

CHAPTER I.

METHODISM won its way, p. 3; satisfaction in the doings of the conference of 1792, p. 3; conferences and circuits, p. 4; efforts to establish district schools, p. 4; labors of Bishop Asbury, p. 5; Methodism in New-England, p. 6; preachers withdrawn, dead, and located, p. 9; numbers, conferences, and circuits, p. 10; Methodism in the west, p. 11; affliction and labors of Bishop Asbury, p. 12; others labor and suffer with him, p. 15; Methodism in Vermont and Maine, p. 16; in New-Hampshire, p. 17; days of fasting and thanksgiving, p. 17; locations and deaths of preachers, p. 18; number of members and conferences, p. 19; poisonous effects of infidelity, p. 21; a fast proclaimed, p. 22; thanksgiving, p. 23; numbers, p. 24; conferences attended by Bishop Asbury, p. 25; his labors and sufferings, p. 26; meets the classes in New-York, p. 27; Benjamin Abbott, p. 27; his labors and their effects, p. 28; his last public service, p. 35; his death, p. 37; his character, p. 38; death of other preachers, p. 39; of Judge White, p. 42; numbers, p. 43.

CHAPTER II.

Second General Conference, p. 43; locations deprecated, p. 44; chartered fund, p. 45; church property, p. 51; manner in, and purposes for which it is held, p. 52; local preachers, rules for the government of, p. 53; rule respecting the use of ardent spirits, p. 54; Dr. Coke offers his services to the conference, which were accepted, p. 56; he returns to Europe, p. 56; an incident of the voyage, p. 57; conference adjourns, p. 57.

CHAPTER III.

Conferences and circuits, p. 57; illness of Bishop Asbury, p. 58; his labors and sufferings, p. 59; further sufferings at Tuckehoe, N. Y., p. 60; not able to attend conference, but appoints Jesse Lee in his place, p. 61; death of preachers, and number in the church, p. 62; people of color special object of attention, p. 63; rebuilding of the Light-street church, p. 65; extension of the work in Western New-York, p. 66; numbers, p. 67; death and character of John Dickins, p. 67; deaths and locations, p. 71; revival in Upper Canada, p. 72; Calvin Wooster, p. 73; good results of his labors, p. 73; others enter into the work, p. 74; opposition to it, p. 75; Methodism in Ohio, p. 77; in Georgia and Mississippi, p. 81; locations and deaths—death and character of H. C. Wooster, p. 83; numbers, p. 85.

CHAPTER IV.

Third General Conference. The oldest journal commences here, p. 86; debility of Bishop Asbury, p. 86; conference requests a continuance of his