

3. All articles exhibited shall remain in the Hall until the close of the exhibition, when they will be delivered to the contributors, unless otherwise directed.

4. The Judges shall have the discretionary power of withholding premiums, if, in their opinion, the articles exhibited do not merit them.

5. In awarding premiums on plants in pots, special reference will be had to the beauty of the specimens, profusion of bloom, and evidence of superior cultivation. Inferior specimens will be excluded by the judges from competition.

6. Gratuities will be awarded by the judges for any new or rare fruit, flowers, plants, or other object of particular interest, and for which no special premium has been offered.

7. Parties will not be allowed to take more than one prize in the same class.

8. It is also required that fruit, flowers, and vegetables, should be accompanied by brief observations on the mode of cultivation, if peculiar, together with any other remarks of utility.

9. No individual, except the judges, will be allowed to touch or handle any fruit, flower, or other article exhibited.

10. The decision of the judges, as regards the premiums, must be considered final.

11. The judges shall not be competitors in that class for which they are to award premiums.

12. No person allowed to be present while the judges are awarding the premiums.

13. Any deviation, more or less, from the exact quantities or numbers specified in the schedule will disqualify a competitor.
