

- Line 22.—misère—Want.
 Line 23.—n'avaient—See Note, p. 113, l. 8
 Line 26.—fripous—Scoundrels.
 Line 28.—de faire vivre—To feed.
 Line 30.—ait—Subjunctive after croire.
 Line 31.—coupables &c.—Criminals of his kind.
 Line 33.—de si haut—From so high a quarter.
 Line 35.—soudain—At once.
 Line 36.—jugement—Trial
 Line 37.—en butte—Exposed.
 “ dans le sein &c.—In the legislative councils.

PAGE 115.

- Line 5.—va être signée—Is about to be concluded.
 Line 6.—vous dessaisir de—Divest yourselves of—lay down.
 Line 7.—fixé—Decided.
 Line 10.—de troubler—To disturb.
 Line 11.—n'alla pas &c.—Proceeded no further in this direction.
 Line 12.—sein—Bosom—system.
 “ qui met &c.—Which places the glorious deeds of noble men in security, and protects them from reverses of fortune.
 Line 15.—atteintes—Attacks.
 “ mal—Disease.
 Line 17.—le bruit &c.—The rumour spread that he had been poisoned.
 Line 21.—précédemment—Previously—on a previous occasion.
 Line 22.—soudoyé—Hired.
 “ on savait &c.—His life was known to be seriously threatened.
 Line 27.—en proie à—A prey to.
 Line 28.—épuisé—Exhausted.
 Line 36.—un coup de feu &c.—A shot was fired at him almost point-blank.
 Line 38.—pour son complice—As his accomplice.
 “ nullement—Vainly,

PAGE 116.

- Line 1.—la joie &c.—It is stated by Thiers that Hoche in his anxiety as to the result of the coup d'État, had prepared for himself and his family, means of flight to Austria, in case the Directors should not be successful in their attacks on the Legislative Councils.
 “ lui rendit &c.—Gave him renewed strength,