

Watertown Yacht Wins First Race for George Cup

Note and Comment

Knolly Lee is to be congratulated on the final assurance that the first season of the Canadian League will end successfully. The closing games are scheduled for Sept. 15 and 16, as per the original program. The league is in a position to be able to pay Lee a bonus for his well-merited work of organization.

Richard Croker suggests legislation at Albany that will permit part-time betting through the New York tracks. He says that so long as there is so much genuine opposition to bookmakers, racing cannot be revived.

An interesting innovation was tried in the first game of the season between the Watertown and the Kingston Y.C. A team composed of the best amateur players in that city, each side being allowed two hours to select the highest score deciding the match. Unfortunately, the Watertown team was composed of a few amateurs who were not up to the task, and the game was a failure, the Watertown team winning easily.

Those who are hammering the Johnson-Vella match may be in the majority, but their lay-off is not the only one. The press agent writes that people in England are taking the greatest interest in the forthcoming battle for the world's championship between Jack Johnson and James J. Vella, a young pugilist brought over from India for the express purpose of being trained to meet Johnson. The Englishman is gaining confidence every day, and his supporters are now convinced that he will at the very least give the black the fight of his career. Johnson himself isn't looking forward to any easy walk-over, he says he will win, but he wouldn't be Johnson if he didn't, but he admits that he has a hard struggle before him, so he has decided to put in a week's more training than he did when he met Jeffries.

Harry Gilmore, Jr., has a featherweight on his hands. He is Frank Connelley, and Gilmore is teaching him the value of solid, straight punches. As it was Gilmore who polished Packey McFarland from a negro governing body, the fight of Connelley will be of benefit to the nation. Gilmore professes to see great possibilities in Connelley, and makes no secret of the fact that he is shorting straight at the featherweight title.

Joe Bodine's sons can now be held in New York State under the corporation membership law. The State Athletic Commission, according to the state of New York, has decided that the shooting of a bullet into the back of a man's head is a crime, and that the corporation membership law applies to the shooting of a bullet into the back of a man's head.

Sam Langford and Joe Jeannette, two of the strongest negro contenders for Jack Johnson's title, have been scheduled for a ten-round battle in New York City. Their managers signed a contract on Saturday calling for a contest at Madison Square Garden on Sept. 5. The purse is said to be $10,000.

A remarkable situation has arisen in Irish football circles. Some time ago the Irish League decided that the Bohemian Football Club agreed to certain terms as regards guarantees to be paid them their place in the league would be filled. The Bohemians decided not to accept and dropped out. Now the Bohemians, which is one of the leading clubs in the green jersey, are applying to the league for an injunction to restrain the league from playing their fixtures. One of the league rules is that the annual meeting is held at the annual meeting, and the league is not to be dissolved. The Bohemians now claim that the league is not to be dissolved, and the league may have to dissolve.

The Schomberg Picnic. Active preparations are being made to hold a grand picnic at Schomberg, at the fair grounds under the auspices of St. Patrick's Church committee. Every effort is being made to make it a success and present indications are that it will eclipse the picnic held there two years ago, and that it will be second to no picnic north of Toronto, except Herb Kenney's at Jackson Park. The picnic menu will be served in the large new skating rink and brass band and quadrille music will be played. A splendid program of field sports is being arranged, including baseball and football tournaments, for which special prizes will be given. These may be seen at Schomberg, 10 Yonge street. An attractive feature of the day will be interesting addresses by the following distinguished gentlemen: Hon. A. B. Aylesworth, M.P.; Herbert T. Lennox, M.L.A. for North York; Alexander Ferguson, M.L.A. South Simcoe; D. J. Donovan, M.L.A. Brantford; J. A. M. Armstrong, Conservative candidate for North York; F. C. Robbette, Liberal candidate for North York; J. J. Wagon, controller City Toronto; Featherston, Aylesworth, barrister, Toronto; T. N. Pheasant, alderman, Toronto. Baseball and football competitors must leave Toronto on Metropolitan Railway at 9 a.m. as the tournament commences at 10 a.m. A special car will leave at 9:30 to accommodate others.

Soccer Notes. Hibernia P.C. will hold a meeting to-night at their grounds, Kingston road and East Queen street. All members are requested to be on hand, also to wish to join a good fast intermediate team are welcome.

BARROW APPEALS TO DIRECTORS' MEETING

All Three Appeals Disallowed—Rochester Had Deciding Vote in Leafs' Case.

BUFFALO, N.Y., Aug. 28.—At a meeting of the directors of the Eastern League here to-day it was decided to play a season series, to start on Sept. 25, between the Buffalo and the Rochester Red Wings. The series will be played on a best-of-seven basis, with each side being allowed two hours to select the highest score deciding the match. Unfortunately, the Buffalo team was composed of a few amateurs who were not up to the task, and the game was a failure, the Buffalo team winning easily.

The action of President Barrow in three protected games—Montreal, Toronto, and Buffalo—was upheld, and the appeals disallowed, leaving the league's standing as at present.

Thomas A. Clarke, catcher for the Cincinnati baseball team, formerly with Montreal, and Miss Alice Margaret Van Til, obtained a marriage license yesterday in Long Island City, N.Y.

Jack Kiselow, recently released from the catching staff of the Boston Red Sox, has been signed up by the Philadelphia Nationals and is expected to report for duty in the near future.

Thursday, Aug. 28, promises to be a red-letter day in the annals of baseball. In this vicinity the renowned Pittsburgh Pirates will be here on that day, and, judging from the manner in which they will be received, the game will be a record attendance. Requests have been received from all parts of the country for seat reservations, and the prospects point to a big turnout from London.
