Laffeche a Lecture About Appearing in Portneuf.

Montreal, July 28.—(Special.)—It is of course well known that Portneuf is open and that Sir Henri de Lotbiniere is about to appeal to his electors for the ratification of his acceptance of office under Hon. Mr. Laurier, but La Patrie has found out something beyond the knowledge of ordinary mortals. Mr. Beaugrand's paper says: "Mgr. Lafieche, Bishop of Three Rivers, has been in the county of Portneuf for some days past. Sunday he preached at St. Albans, and to-day His Lordship is at Deschambault. In fact he is making a tour of the whole county, and, strange to say, this visit coincides with the election of Sir Henri de Lotbiniere. Does the old Bishop of Three Rivers wish to renew the war against the Liberal party? It certainly looks like it, although it seems to us that he should listen to the warhe pen and that Sir Henri de Lotbiniere

The Admission of Anarchists.

After the usual preliminaries the Congress took up the question of the admission of Anarchists, against which a large majority vote was cast yesterday. Speeches for and against their recognition as delegates were made by Jean Jaures, a Radical Socialist member of the French Chamber of Deputies; Tom Mann, formerly member of the House of Commons, and several ties; Tom Mann, formerly member of the House of Commons, and several other properly accredited delegates. Throughout the forenoon, afternoon and evening he was busy receiving callers in the famous "Red Parlor."

Other speakers opposed the proposition and the excitement waxed until it appeared that there was a decidedly favorable chance of yesterday's disgraceful scene being repeated. Herr Singer finally succeeded in obtaining a little order, and it was then agreed that properly accredited Anarchists should be admitted, but should be at lowed to take no part in the debates. Later another vote was taken, and it was decided to uphold the Zurich resolution, which in effect provides that Anarchists shall not be admitted. There the question remains at present.
