The whole race course, particularly the enclosure, witnessed scenes of the windest excitement. Comtesse Boni de Castellane, wao was Miss Anna Gould of New Yors city, placed herself at the head of the Jeunesse Royaliste and marched up and down the lawn, shouting "Vive L' Armee!" Come. Boni de Castellane and his brother Jean were arrested, but soon liberated. Comte De Dion, when arrested, resisted and fought with his cane, smashing it on a policeman's head and causing the jewelled top to fly off, striking a journalist. He was detained in custody.

About 130 Arrests Made.

Altogether about 120 arrests were made, one being that of M. Dansette, Deputy Mayor of Armentieres.

Demonstrations and counter demonstrations continued until M. Loubet left the race course at 4.20 p.m., the arrival of his carriage being the signal for an indescribable tumult. The mounted guards with difficulty opened a passage through the crowd, the President being pursued to the last with hoots and yells. Even eggs were thrown. It was noteworthy, however, that the people generally cheered him loudly, the cheers increasing as he drove toward the Elysee, which he reached safely at 4.45 p.m. During the demonstrations a number of hats labelled "Resignation" were picked up.

The Derouledists, balked of their opportunity, evidently vented their spite upon the President. The race course company apologized to M. Loubet, who replied that he could not think of holding them responsible. He remarked to an important personage that he did not intend being intimidated into resignation.

During the demonstrations M. Rochefort, editor of L'intransizeant, was seen and an attempt was made to induce him to lead the manifestation, but he discreetly slipped away.

Special Cabinet Council.

A special Cabinet Council was summoned at 9 o'clock this evening to consider the withation, and important measures were concerted to be submitted to the President at another council to-morrow for the preservation of order. The Ministers, who were in session until 11 o'clock, maintain strict freserve as to the nature of these measures.

Winnipeg, Man., June 4 .- (Special.)-The Tribune on Saturday said editorially: Dr. Douglas, author of the Elevator Bill, is a strong supporter of the Liberal Government, and has up to the present been an equally strong personal supporter of Mr. Sifton. supporter of Mr. Sifton. His confidence in the Minister of the Interior has, according to his published interview, received a severe shock. In this interfeiew, published elsewhere in this issue, he explains how his bill was defeated. "It is a terrible blow to our whole West," he says, "and of course we know where to piace the blame. It was the cold steel of Clifford Sifton that did it. There is nothing left that will relieve the people who have been suffering for years. The mischievous scheming of Clifford Sifton is the cause of our defeat."

This interview appeared in a Toronto daily some time ago, but we have not yet seen any contradiction or correction of its statement. The charge is a most serious one and if the explanation of the defeat of the bill thus given is well-founded, many western settlers will share in Dr. Douglas' indignation at the course followed by the representative of Brandon constituency in Parliament and representative of the West in the Government.

Frank Oliver. M.P., in The Edmonton Bulletin correspondence, says: "With three members of the Cabinet on the committee the conclusion is irresistible, in view of the result that the Government united with the Opposition to continue the combine."

The Regina Leader, Morden Chronicle, MacGregor Herald, Moosomin Spectator and other dyed in the wool Siftonian organs refer on this occasion to the suspicious absence of Mr. Sifton from the committee.

I therefore thank you most heartily and wish that, upon its voyages to the new German island realm, German shipping may continue to be accompanied by God's blessing."

The general tone of the press in commenting upon the acquisition of the islands from the Spanish Government is in the direction of helitiling the value of the concession. The Tagliche Rundschan, the leading organ of the German expansion policy, says: "Germany obtains the remnants which America, in her superior manner, despised. Their value is small, and there is no need of joyous transports."

The Freisinnige Zeitung, which calls them "our new and worthless colonies" says "A prize would have to be offered to discover which of the three groups is the most valueless. Germany is paying for colonies that nobody else wanted."

The Frankfurter Zeitung says: "Spain alone derives any advantage. The islands are of next to no economic value, and will involve Germany in continual expense, without any prospect of profit."
