Your walls with real flowers—real violets, roses, or almost any kind of blossoms—but they won't be a bit prettier than the WALL PAPER.

We have. We will put on any paper you select in any room in your house. Papering has come to be such a science now, days and is so cheap that people don't wait until spring. They change the paper on their walls whenever they get tired. We're at your disposal.

Toronto, Ont., Nov. 26-11 p.m.—The storm mentioned last night has moved to Lake Superior, instead of towards the lower lakes, as was expected, and is now causing heavy gales on Lakes Superior and Huron, and a severe northwestern blizzard in Manitoba. The weather today has been fine and warm over the greater part of Ontario, but in the Ottawa Valley, Quebec, and the Maritime Provinces it has continued with snow and sleet. Minimum and maximum temperatures: Esquimaux, 24-28; Edmonton, 20 below-16 below; Calgary, 8 below; Prince Albert, 24 below; Qu'Appelle, 8 below-6 below; Port Arthur, 14-20; Toronto, 28-36; Ottawa, 20-32; Montreal, 20-30; Quebec, 18-22; Halifax, 20-32.

PROBABILITIES.

Toronto, Nov. 27-1 a.m.—Probabilities for 24 hours for lower lake region: Strong winds and gales, south and southwest; mild, with occasional rains Friday; turning much colder Saturday.

LOCAL TEMPERATURES.

The highest and lowest readings of the thermometer at the observatory yesterday were 52 above and 40.5 above.

—Belt line cars did a big business yesterday.

—Mr. Clay Manville will return to London from Clinton.

—Envelopes of all sizes and qualities at The Advertiser Job Department.

—Miss Peel of London, is a guest of Miss Carlyle, "Englewood," Woodstock.

—Mr. Chas. Stevens, of this city, is a guest in the family of John Wright, on Eighth Street, Port Huron.

—Mr. W. Perkins, of Marquetteville, is shipping his tools to Hollandville, where he will put down five wells for Mr. J. R. Minnick, of this city.

—Knox College Board recently took into consideration the financial condition of the institution. One gentleman in Toronto headed the subscription list with $1,000 and another with $500.

—The auxiliary crew of the C. P. R. worked all day yesterday clearing the wreck at the Waterloo street crossing. The cars were tracked again at 3 a.m. yesterday, and the engine in the afternoon. The latter was not injured. Switchman Ducker has been suspended, and another man is at the crossing.

—The December sessions of the Mid-dex County Council convenes here on Tuesday next, when, as at present constituted, it will meet for the last time. The Strathroy Dispatch observes that "instead of 48 members, there will be hereafter only 12, and it is probable that a number of historic desks will now be for sale at a bargain."

—Yesterday Mr. and Mrs. James Percival, of 227 Queen's Avenue, celebrated their golden wedding at the residence of their son-in-law, Mr. W. H. Wortman, Dundas Street. With the exception of one son, who was detained in Chicago, the whole family was present. Mr. and Mrs. Percival received many handsome presents and other tokens of affection.

—The many friends in this neighborhood of Dr. S. G. Gibson will be glad to hear that he has been very successful in his practice in the west. He is recognized as a physician of high standing in Langdon, North Dakota, and at the recent election was unanimously elected coroner of the county. He immediately began duty by investigating a mysterious case of suicide.

—This evening the Lobo village school held their annual entertainment in the Foresters' Hall, in the village. The programme gives every promise of being first-class. Besides the pleasing performances of the children, it embraces numbers from Miss C. In Dr. Hay's death. The funeral takes place today at Watford.

—At the annual convocation of St. John's Royal Arch Chapter, No. 3, O. R. C., Wednesday night, the election of officers for the ensuing year was brought on. R. Ex. Comp. A. E. Cooper and J. S. Dewar officiating as scrutineers, and resulted as follows: Z. Ex. Comp. Alex. Findlay; H. Ex. Comp. W. J. Carson; J. Ex. Comp. J. A. Gauld; Scribe E. Comp. John Sidons; Scribe N. Comp. Wm. O'Brien; Treasurer, R. Ex. Comp. A. E. Cooper; Principal Sojourner, Comp. Oliver Ellwood; Janitor, Comp. John Robertson.

At the close of the meeting a pleasant hour was spent in speech and song.

—On Wednesday evening, at the residence of Mr. M. Walsley, 69 Sackville Street, his daughter, Miss Lillian Frances, and Mr. Chris. J. D. Pink were united in marriage. The bride was supported by her sister, Clara, while Mr. Frank McLellan assisted the groom. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. J. Congregational Church. After the wedding breakfast, which was partaken of by a large circle of friends, the young couple left for Sarnia. Among the many beautiful and appropriate presents was a dinner and tea service, presented by the employees of T. F. Kingsmill.

—At the residence of Mr. and Mrs. E. Cole, No. 137 Dundas Street, last evening, the nuptials of their daughter, Miss Mattie Cole, and Mr. Harry Rodwell, of Toronto, were celebrated. The bride was the recipient of many valuable presents, among which was a check for $500 from her father. After a repast came songs and speeches, and subsequently dancing, until an early hour in the morning. The bride was attired in cream tulle, trimmed with duchess lace, carrying a bouquet of cream roses and maiden hair ferns. The bridesmaid, Miss Marie Cole, was similarly attired. The groomsmen were Mr. E. T. Ord, of Toronto. They left for Montreal and other eastern cities by the early train this morning.

—The funeral of the late Robert McDonald, of Wells street, Port Huron, who had been suffering from Bright's disease for some months, took place last night at 8 p.m. at the residence of his daughter, Mrs. J. D. McDonald, 1824, at New Caledonia, N. Y. With his parents he emigrated to Canada in 1829, and settled in that section. He leaves a widow and six sons—Chas. McDonald, St. Louis; R. D. McDonald and John M. McDonald, of this city; Alex. McDonald, Port Huron; Henry McDonald, St. Louis; also two daughters, Mrs. M. A. Minsh, Toronto, and Mrs. C. F. Farr, Port Huron.

—Roast turkey, plum pudding, and a score of side dishes were the prelude to the banquet at the annual Thanksgiving entertainment of the London West Methodist Church last night. A grand musical and literary programme followed. Songs were given by Miss McKillop, Mr. Gibson and Mr. Forrester; a recitation by Miss Alice Green, and a speech by Rev. George Jackson. For one young man, Miss McKillop displayed a remarkably sweet and well-cultivated voice. An anthem by the choir was admirable. Miss Alice Green read the annual report of the Ladies' Aid, which showed much good work accomplished. Mr. John Green presided. The officers of the Ladies' Aid are: President, Mrs. J. D. Saunby; vice-president, Mrs. Perrin; secretary, Mrs. Footitt; treasurer, Mrs. C. B. Armstrong.

ST. JAMES' DINNER.

The managers of St. James' Presbyterian Church gave an excellent Thanksgiving dinner in the lecture room of that church last night. It was, perhaps, the most successful thing of the kind ever held there, and connected with it was a fine programme. The dinner was served from 6:30 to 8:30. The lecture room was full of tables, and these were filled three times. Rev. M. P. Talling opened the programme with a few remarks, after which Rev. D. C. Johnston led in prayer. The following programme was then rendered in a most appreciable manner: Instrumental, Miss Annie Proudfoot; quartet, "Come, Fair Moonlight," Mrs. Alex. McDonald; recitation, Messrs. Watt and Webster; recitation, Miss Annie McArthur; solo, Mr. Forrester; instrumental, Mrs. Harriet Holman; duet, Messrs. McDonald and Webster; recitation, Miss West; solo, Mr. McDonald; quartet, The Misses Wilson; recitation, Mr. J. Gray; solo, "True Thy Death," Mr. E. Wyatt; quartet, "Soldiers' Farewell," The Misses Bella and Maggie and Messrs.

Dear Sirs,—About three years ago, you may remember I handled some of your medicines at Queenston, Ont. I am not positive, but I think that the "Bark-well's Sure Corn Cure" that we had was got from your house.

Will you kindly reply to this note, telling me if you do handle Bark-well's, and if so, would it be possible to send by mail? If I am mistaken, can you tell me what firms do handle it? I WANT NO OTHER except Bark-well's Sure Corn Cure. It is put up in bottles, retailed at 25c. Hoping to hear from you soon, and wishing you compliments of the season, believe me, yours truly,

HARRY H. YOUNG.
