Friday Was Not "Unlucky Day" at Local Recruiting Depots.

AT BASE HOSPITAL

Eleven Cases of Typhoid Fever Reported at Present Time.

Friday, according to the recruiting officer, is an unlucky day, as that is the one day that he usually experiences the least success in getting men to "sign up," but yesterday proved an exception to this rule when a total of 28 recruits were attested out of 59 who came up for examination. Compared with the results of the same pared with the results of the same day a week previous, when 17 was the number, the results yesterday are very gratifying. There are still a large number of rejections.

The 238th Forestry Battalion again led by a large margin with eight recruits added to its strength. The Army Service Corps came next with six. The batteries are proving popular with the men, as yesterday's results show, the 69th securing four and the 70th two. Of the other units, the 198th Battalion led with three, while the 166th and No. 1 Construction Bat-talions each added two to their

One of the speakers was W. Chamberlain of the Robins Players, now playing at the Alexandra Theatre. Mr. Chamberlain, who was formerly an American, but is now a naturalized citizen of Canada, made a strong appeal for recruits. He is at present devoting his spare time to recruiting and expects to be in khald himself shortly. He is an able and enthursantic speaker.

Has Unique Recruiting Record.

A most unique recruiting record is enjoyed by Sergt-Major Stanley Fuller, the latest of the well-known recruiters to link up with the 238th makes the seventeenth battalion for which the sergeant-major has sought recruits. While with the 36th Peel Regiment, he recruited for drafts for eight battalions, and since then he has helped the following units: the 116th, 109th, 9th Mississanga Horse, 53th, 81st, 23rd, 74th, 704th and the 238th, 169th, 9th Mississanga Horse, 5ath, 81st, 23rd, 74th, 704th and the 238th, 169th, 9th Mississanga Horse, 5ath, 81st, 23rd, 74th, 704th and the 238th, 169th, 9th Mississanga Horse, 5ath, 81st, 23rd, 74th, 704th and the 238th, 169th, 9th Mississanga Horse, 5ath, 81st, 23rd, 74th, 704th and the 238th, 169th, 9th Mississanga Horse, 5ath, 81st, 23rd, 74th, 704th and the 238th, 81st, 23rd, 74th, 704th and the 238th, 81st, 23rd, 74th, 80th, Another interesting recruiting touch

SPIRIT OF INSURGENCY

Opposition to Hearst Government's Course Threatens a Serious Split.

Insurgency in the Ward 4 Liberal-Conservative Association reached a climax last night when, at a largely attended meeting of the executive of the organization, it was decided to send a letter to Pres. James Norris of the central executive, virtually demanding that representation at the Southwest Toronto nomination meeting next Monday night be granted. For some time past it has been evident that a large number of members of the association are out of sympathy with the Hearst prohibition enactment. Reorganized and Re-equipped Balkan Army Opens Fourth War.

LONDON, July 29, 2.35 a.m.—The iews that the Serbian army again is n action arouses speculation in London, as to whether another phase of the great allied offensive is about to be opened in the Saloniki theatre. For the past three days the Serbians have been engaged in a series of operations with the object of driving the Bulgarian from positions which they occupy on Greek territory about half dozen miles from the frontier. They already have captured a series of heights, where they maintain their positions despite the artillery fire and counter-attacks of the Bulgarians.

A despatch from Saloniki says: "The Serbian army has begun its ourth war in four years. Reorganied and re-equipped, it is again fighting its old enemies, the Bulgarians, and the first skirmishes at Kopil and north of Vodena have gone in its favor." A special despatch from Bucharest says:

STAR THEATRE OPENS BURLESQUE TODAY Blutch Cooper Has Treat for Patrons in Beauty, Youth and

The regular buriesque season in Toronto will be sent off to a whirlwind start at the Star Theatre, beginning with today's matinee. Late yesterday afternoon "Blutch" Cooper and his big Beauty, Youth and Folly show pulled their first performance. Last night in the theatre a dress rehearsal was held and Cooper, who is an old actor himself, was on hand to direct. This year the show is entirely new. A fine company of principals and 80 chorus girls have been selected. Luella Temple is a winsome leading woman and possesses a vary sweet voice. One of the many specialties that should appeal to the audience is the posing act under her direction. Dave Vine, well-known "Yiddisher," has many funny impersonations of a Scotchman.

The chorus girls and soubrettes have all been rigged out in bright natty costues and Cooper does not seem to let up from chasing them to show "up" in the singing and dancing numbers, The dancas are new and very fitting for the ergembles and to round out the mediate adoption of a vigorous trade policy, excluding all things German.

"There are today in our midst," he said, "men in responsible places who are actually pleading that Germany must be allowed time to recuperate as one of the nations of the earth, despite the methods she had adopted of outrage, pillage, violation and base betrayal of friendship and hospitality. I say that for at least a generation Germen men should be excluded from the pale of the British Empire. Give them a good long time to repent, and then let then come and pray to be readmitted into the neighborhood of fellowship and decent civilization."

Attitude to Neutrals.

When Sir George dealt with the attitude he had adopted toward neutrals he was roundly applauded, "Let us remember," he said, "they have not shed an ounce of blood in this Armageddon, We, in the Dominion, and you at home have been severely chastened and taught some of the feelings of Gethsemane. Will anyone then deny us the right to treat the empire and its partner more favorably? Let us say to others: We will not be unreasonable with you, but we will be just to our own. When the war is over nations that have banded themselves in defence of ideals for which they were fighting would have the duty of reconstructing the basis of their attitude towards each other, so that it may be more favorable than that accorded to neutrals, but we must be organized just as well for peace time in order to conserve the empire for its people and not for the individual. The tariff walls will not help us."

Nor did he hold out the least hope that the empire could be brought together on the basis of free trade. As regards trade, commerce and production one thing was essential; that we should get together at once and hammer out a policy for the future.

Resolution Expressed Loyalty of the Order to His Majesty.

Once again an effort was made to increase the representation to Grand Lodge by adding all district masters to the list of delegates. As in three prevents the list of delegates. As in three previous years, this matter was hotly contested by a number of delegates from thinly populated communities. An amendment, which would have provid-amendment, which would have provided more equitable representation was introduced to the effect that all primary masters should be appointed to grand lodge.

The proposals which were fathered by Fred Dane, William Crawford and William Bush of Toronto, resulted in long discussions, but both were finally defeated, mainly thru spirited debating by Hon. R. A. Squires and Rev. Dr. Jones of Newfoundland, and G. H. Armstrong of Saskatoon.

At luncheon a bright address was made by Sir Mackenzie Bowell, a past grand master and former premier of Canada. In referring to his introduction of remedial legislation on the Manitoba school question, he reiterated his belief that his position at that time had been a constitutional one. Notwithstanding the events of the year 1896, the Orange Association had always treated him with a consideration that had deeply appealed to him.

Captain Kidd of Burritt's Falls, also addressed the gathering. He has twice been wounded in France and will shortly return to the battlefront.

WILSON'S LATEST NOTE

Administration Charged With Playing for Anti-British Vote.

LOOKING TO NOVEMBER

Washington Corresondent of Tribune Makes Some Caustic Comments.

NEW YORK, July 28.—A Washington despatch to The Tribune sa. s.

With the Co-Latch of a note to Great Britain from the state department controversy over the British blacklist passes from the international stage to the lage of demestic politics.

Altho the communication is for delivery to the London foreign office and follows all the rules of diplomatic use, in reality it is a document aimed at the thousands of voters on this side of the Atlantic who between now and November must make up their minds as to the merits or demerits of the Wilson administration.

For one who has witnessed the changes in Washington during the last week, this conclusion is unavoidable.

Nor is the charge a new one, Suspicion has been raised before that international matters, like the "apology for the Lusitania attack, responsibility for the Lusitania attack, responsibility for the Sussex affair and the whole Mexican situation, were being made to serve the exigencies of democratic and White House politics. Now the British blacklist has been added to this class.

Shrewd Strategy.

The blacklist note is a shrewd bit of political strategy. Weak as the American case is it gives the administration the appearance of a "strong stand" against British encroachments in these vital days before November.

In the first place, administration leaders are seizing on the note as retuting the "pro-British" charges brought against the president by German-Americans and other "hyphenate" sympathizers. While from present indications it is zong to be extremely popular to condemn everything that is not simon-pure "Americanism." silently the Democratis have been mourning the loss of so namy German votes, especially in Wisconsin and Missourt.
