THE VICTORIES OF OLD ENGLAND. Awake, ye lion hearts of yore, Ye dwellers of the sca!
 Reclaim the rights our isthers wor The wile waves mastery.
 There's still a power thy fame woul Though oft it strove in vain To quell thy might, And to doubt thy right To rule upon the main !
 Then rise, ye lion hearts of old, Unfurl your flag again, For the honour of Old England, And her victories on the main !

And her viccories of the main . Awake !--the voices of the deep Call back their own again, Nor more should British valour sleep, Or foes may rule the main. Letp up, ye gallant hearts of old, And let your signal be--The foremost blow From the strongest foe To drive them from the sea ! Then prove ye lion-hearts of yore, Ye have not slept in vain, For the honour of Old England, And the heroes of the main !

And the heroes of the main: Then up, ye gallant hearts again, Still, still a sturdy band; We've mighty ships upon the main And oaks upon our laud: And white true British hearts unito To guard our native shore, Will Britain keep Over all the deep The fame they won of yore! Then up, ye lion-hearts of yore! Unitarl your flag again— For the victories of oilt England And the heroes of the main! J. F. CARPENTER.

HEADACHE.

BALLDNRESS. A BEAUTIFUL HEAD OF HAIR Is the grandest ornament belonging to the human frame. How strangely the ios of it changes the countenance, and prematurely brings on the appear-nce of old age, which causes many to recoil at being uncovered, and sometimes even shun society to avoid the jest and somet of their acquaintance; the remain-der of their lives is consequently spent in retirement. In short, not even the loss of property fills the gene-rous thinking youth with that heavy sinking gloom as dead the loss of his huir. To aveit all these unplex-sant circumstances, OLDRIDGE'S BALM OF COLUMBIA stops the hair from failing off on the first application, and a few bottles restores it again. It likewise produces eyebrows and whiskers; prevents the hair from turning grey, makes it curl beautifully, and trees it from scorf. Numerous certificates of the first applectability in support of the virtues of Old-ridge's Balm see shown by the propistors. The Rend the following: WILLIAN THATCHER, Sec. Nethodist Aliniser In St. Gonge character HUGH MCCULINY, setSom the st. THE HUMAN HAIR.

THE HUMAN HAIR. Where the hair is biserved to be growing thin, nothing can be more preposterous than the use of oils, grease, or any other fatty matter. Their application can only be recommended through the grossest igno-rance, as they husten the fail of the hair, by increas-ing the relaxation of the skin. When there is a harsh, dry, or contracted skin, and where the small blood vessels which carry nourishment to the bulb are ob-structed, then the oil, &c., may be good, as they tend to relax the skin ; but slone they are of no avail. There must be a stimulous to rouse the vessels from their torpor, and quicken the current of the blood.-Extract from Clirchogks Treatise on the Hair. The Baim of Columbia is the only preparation that can have that effect, being entirely free from any oily

Vegetable Life Medicines. THESE Medicines are indebted for their name to their manifest and sensible action in purifying the springs and channels of life, and enduing them with renewed tone and vigor. In many hundred cer-tified cases which have been made public, and in al-most every species of disease to which the human frame is liable, the happy effects of MOFFAT'S LIFE PILLS AND PHENIX BITTERS have been gratefully and publicly schnowledged by the persons benefitted, and who were previously unac-quainted with the beautifully philosophical principles upon which they are compounded, and upon which they consequently act.
