Delightful Event Is Enjoyed In Hall of St. George's

Church

A very delightful mother and daughter banquet was tendered by the C. G. I. T. members of St. George's church fodils, narcissi and Easter lities. Each of the four groups were seated at one table. The groups and their leaders are the Red Feathers, Miss Grace Lord; Blue Birds, Miss Alice Thompson; Violets, Mrs. McBay; Rainbows, Miss Helen Ougler. The place cards were decorated with the emblems of each group and were the work of Miss Kathleen Upham and Miss Grace Lord. Guests of honor were Mrs, R. A. Jamieson, Miss Etta Sampson and Rev. John Unsworth, the rector. About 80 partook of the bountiful supper. Mr. Unsworth asked the blessing and the young ladies of Mrs. Unsworth's Bible class assisted in serving.

There were 43 members of the board of management, practically a full attendance, seated at an excellent supper provided by the members of the Wormen's Bible Class under the convenerability of Mrs. Fanny Andrews.
