Sorrow in Dr. Alling-

ham's Death

W. P. Crawford, Daughter and Granddaughter Sing in St. Paul's

In addition to Trinity Anglican church, Streetsville, Ont., and St. John's (Stone) church, Saint John, N. B., it develops that St. Paul's church, Hampton, also holds a record for having three generations of a family reping three generations of a family represented in the choir. They are S. M. Crawford; his daughter, Mrs. R. T. Newbery, and granddaughter. Miss Clendon Newbery. A son, W. P. Crawford, is also a member of the choir.

S. M. Crawford was born in Hampton, and is a son of the late William and Adelaide Crawford. He has been a member of St. Paul's choir since 1870 (56 years), although at times he has been away from Hampton for some months. He was choir master at one time, and his daughter Helena, the late Mrs. Whitfield deVeber Piers, was organist for 15 years. Mrs. Newbery became a member of the choir when the Rev. Charles D. Schofield was rector, and Miss Clendon Newbery joined the choir when Rev. C. Gordon Lawrence was rector.

OTHERS, ALSO.

When Rev. A. H. Crowfoot was rector of Hampton, Mr. Crawford, his four daughters and three grandchildren were members of the choid, and his granddaughter, Miss Lillian Stephenson, was organist.

When Rev. Mr. Lawrence was rector, Mr. Crawford's daughter, Mrs. G. Bowman Fisher, was organist, but not during all that period. Mrs. Fisher and man Fisher, was organist, but not during all that period. Mrs. Fisher and her twin boys, Harold and George, are now members of Trinity church choir, Saint John.

A son, Fenwick W. Crawford, was also a valued member of St. Paul's choir for some years. During the war he was a member of the Canadian Military Choir, and sang in Albert Hall, London, before the King and Queen.
