DEPLORES LACK OF ETHICS

Minister Says Rigside Morals Are Better than Those of Business.

New York, Feb. 2.—"We Americans are better reformed than we are Russia," Rev. J. F. Priest declared yesterday at the Reformed Dutch Church of Flatbush, told members of the "Traffic Club" in a address at the Hotel Waldorf-Astoria.

"The ethics of the rigside are better than the ethics of the market place," he continued. "To put it bluntly, we haven't the same downright nastiness that we see in Russia. America's greatness was not born of isolated states, but from those who present the same line-up of apparently conflicting interests."

"The soul of America is that of the rigside, something that it sometimes is."

A Furniture Sale With a Special Purchase Plan

A lean purse takes full advantage of the Sale Savings that come but once a year at J. Marcus'. There is no danger of not possessing the very thing you fall in love with. A deposit puts it away until you do want it, even if that means next Autumn.

It is stored and insured without charge; sent to any point in the province without charge, and at reductions of from 20 to 35 per cent.

So much for the possessing part—now for the choosing. It hardly needs saying that Marcus Furniture is larger by far in variety and lower in price. A look will decide that. It may not be necessary to say it is nicer—your own good taste will take care of that. And from the standpoint of workmanship you can see beyond any doubt that in every case Marcus Furniture was chosen primarily for thoroughness of construction.

The fact that this institution has enjoyed a booming patronage, while most all other businesses felt a slackening, speaks well enough for the worth and taste of our larger range of offerings.

Finally—Marcus have but one sale a year, so they make it a good one. It is on now, replete with special attractions just selected by personal visit to all the big manufacturers. For service, for beauty of design and for price—especially our 1923 Sale prices—there is hardly any comparison. Judge for yourself. Get first pick and remember the convenience as well as the economy of this once-a-year sale.

PRODUCE PRICES (Hartland Observer)

A peculiar feature of the potato market this year is that from the very commencement to the present the price has remained practically unchanged. In other years there has been great fluctuation. Today, as for months past, the price of potatoes holds around $1 per barrel. Butter is bringing 60c per pound and eggs 40c per dozen, and these prices are just double what the ruling prices were ten years ago.
