INDIANA HAS GIVEN US ANOTHER TOUGH ONE

Here's the latest Hoosier biter. He's Jimmy Anderson and he comes from Indiana, where so many hard-hitting boys have been given their start in the ring. In a record of sixty-four battles this lightweight has lost only one decision and that was an unpopular one. He is going to fight Coast's Doig in LaSalle, Ill., on Thanksgiving day, and then hop to New York where he is wanted for Willie Beecher. He is under the wing of Joe Sullivan, a Chicago manager. He is tough enough to fight every week.

Eighty-eight men worked for Stoner Seitz and Jonas Haverstick, two farmers of Mountville, Pa., without any recompense. Seitz had lost his barn and contents by fire and was unable to harvest his large crop of corn, so eighty-eight farmer friends housed and husked his fourteen acres of corn; then they did similar work for Haverstick because he is suffering from rheumatism.

Lockjaw is said to be prevalent in Europe and there are about half a dozen American league officials hoping Hughie Jennings has been exposed to it.

The Britons will sell the St. Louis Cardinals if anyone will pay them $500,000. We have a pair of old shoes at home that we'll throw in for $23,255.

Judging from the vagrant scores floating back from the coast, the world's series started just a month too early for the American leaguers to get into condition.

The fellow who writes Christy Mathewson's stuff would better take to the side streets when Matty reads that he predicts ball players will suffer a heavy cut in salary.
