Raise $8,000 for Missions and $25,000 for Acadia

Quarterly Session of Missionary Union Will be Concluded Here This Afternoon.

Besides raising more than $8,000 during the last three morths for missionary work, the United Baptist Women's missionary Union of the Maritime Provinces has raised $25,000 in the last six months for the Acadia University extension appeal.

Reports of finances occupied the greater part of the opening session of the Quarterly meeting of the executive of the U. B. W. M. U., held last night in the Germain Street Baptist Institute, with Mrs. W. G. Clark, of Fredericton, president, in the chair, and 27 members present.

In the spening devotions Mrs. J. R.
Van Wart read the Scriptures and prayer was offered by thirteen women.
The treasurer reported receipts of $5,143.49 duing the last quarter year and expenditures totaling $10,689.11. In addition the sum of $25,000 had been raised for the Acadia fund in six months.
