DISSATISFIED WITH ROAD EXPENDITURES

Farmers of Courtenay and Comox Have Heart to Heart Talk With Their Representative.

Cumberland, Oct. 7 .- Owing to dissatisfaction among the Courtenay and Comox farmers about the miserable state of the roads through the district, and the injudicious way in which they believe foreman McCann is spending the appro-priation granted the district, the taxpayers decided to hold a public meeting, to which R. Grant, M. P. P., J. Baird, government agent, and Mr. McCann, road boss (appointed by Mr. Grant), were invited to be present to explain the pre-sent disagreeable state of affairs.

Manager and Secretary Keary pre sented an intersting report of the finances of the fair, giving a summary of the estimates and receipts. The amount received from admissions up to Frida evening was $21,687, and $4,000 or $5,000 was expected Saturday if the weather was favorable. The estimated amount was $30,000. Receipts, however, had been larger for membership tickets. The receipts had come well up to the mark in every instance with the exception of Vancouver, $6,000 being estimated, but less than $1,200 being promised. How-ever, he was of the opinion that when the fair was over the financial statement would be entirely satisfactory consider ing the unfavorable weather that has prevailed. Mrs. Dauglas came to Victoria from opening up the Khayyan group of claims, trampays, bunkers, and in otherwise dethree to seven thousand tons a month, o the smelter.

The Brown Alaska Company have from sixty to seventy men working in the Mamie mines at Hadley, on the East Coast, and they expect to blow in the smelter in a few weeks, or as soon as they can get sufficient fluxing ores to mix with the magnetite. Sam Silvertown, of Seattle, is getting 100 tons of ore a day out of the property adjoining.

Mr. Brewer tells of several other proprties on Prince of Wales Island when development work is in progress, and he says that the indications are that all will be shipping next season. The Princess May will sail again for Skagway to-morrow night. She will
