PULP MILL FOR SALE.

Property and works of The St. John Pulp Company, Limited (In Liquidation), situated at Mispe, Boston County, New Brunswick. The Mill Property of the Company comprises over three hundred acres. Works are situated on the Mispe River, a quarter of a mile from the sea and six miles by water from the City of Saint John. The wharf accommodation is ample. Works are new and substantially built of pressed brick, fitted with modern and up-to-date appliances, including electric plant, and are capable of producing two hundred tons of pulp per week. There is room in the present building for additional plant, which when installed would double the output. The mill dam is substantially built of stone and is about fifty feet high. The water is taken to the turbine wheels in an iron flume five feet in diameter, which gives ample supply for driving machinery and pulp making.

Tenders for purchase of above described property will be received by the undersigned up to October first, 1904, the highest or any tender not necessarily accepted. Further information will be supplied on application.

BORDEN OPENS HIS CAMPAIGN

Vast Audience of Interested Electors Heard the Opposition Leader Outline His Policy

---Mr. Foster's Able Effort.

HON. R. L. BORDEN, Leader of the Conservative Party.

The Borden meeting of last evening could not be described as a great political demonstration. It was an important and valuable political discussion. The opposition leader, as his habit is, presented his case seriously and candidly. He was followed with profound attention and by applause which signified assent and approval. The address was an altogether admirable presentation of a strong case, and it must have a great effect upon all who were so fortunate as to hear it. It was a large meeting, thoroughly representative of the varied interests of the city and province. It was an intelligent audience. No point that was made was lost. The enthusiasm at the close of the meeting, and when Mr. Foster referred to the Dundonald episode showed the disposition of the audience. There was another demonstration when Mr. Borden paid his fine tribute to Mr. Foster's services in the past and predicted a still greater career for him in the future.

As Mr. Borden left the Institute a large crowd formed up, and with torchlights escorted him to the Royal hotel, where he is stopping. In front of the hotel a band was in waiting and played as the leader made his way to the hotel entrance. After he had bade his followers a hearty good-night, the band struck up the national anthem, and the crowd dispersed with cheer after cheer for Mr. Borden.

ON THE PLATFORM.

Among those who occupied seats on the platform were: Dr. Silas Alward, Dr. Bayard, Dr. Cochran, W. S. Fisher, J. deWolfe Spurr, W. S. Barker, L. Cowan, Robert Wilkins, J. J. McGeffigan, Frank Wood, J. Harris, Dr. Melvin, Vincent White, Donaldson Hunt, Senator Wood, W. F. Hatheway, C. H. Thomas, M. B. McNally, S. J. Woodruff, Philip Palmer, Philip Grant, E. P. Grubney, Dr. Andrews, William Wislart, Rev. J. B. Duggart, A. B. Wilnot, G. B. Jones, J. A. Patterson, G. S. Crockett, W. H. Thorne, G. A. Kimble, C. D. Goodill, T. M. Robinson, Fred Waterson, J. B. Eagles, B. R. Armstrong, J. D. Chipman, Mr. Fairweather, G. V. McInerney, H. F. McLeod, John McAllister, ex-M. P. J. Parks, Charles Everett, J. J. Moore, R. St. J. Fries, G. H. V. Belyea, H. Powell, W. B. Jones, W. K. Gross, E. A. Riley, George A. Stevenson, William Hazellhurst, W. B. Ganong, G. D. Reid, W. H. Stewart, W. Green, E. J. Neve, B. F. Hensley, Dr. Stockton, Ald. Maxwell, J. King Kelley, S. D. Scott, C. F. Grandall, Col. Markham, John E. Wilson, D. C. Clinch, John B. M. Baxter, Frank Tutts.

MR. HAZEN OPENED THE MEETING.
The chairman, J. D. Hazen, in opening the meeting, expressed the pleasure he felt in having Mr. Borden present. The time would not be long deferred he said, before the country would be face to face with a general election, and the meeting might very well be considered the opening meeting of the campaign. It was fitting that it should be held in the city of St. John, the place where only a few months ago the party gained one of the greatest victories in the history of Canadian politics. The standard bearer of the party for this city had put in one important session at Ottawa and had conducted himself, so as to win honor for himself and strength for the cause he supported. He firmly believed that at the next election Dr. J. W. Daniel would be elected with the greatest unanimity by the people of St. John. (prolonged applause).

DR. DANIEL.

Dr. Daniel was received with tremendous applause when he arose to speak. He said it gave him very great pleasure to see such a large and enthusiastic audience assembled to greet their honored leader. The duties of an opposition leader were onerous, for he and his party had to take into consideration all the legislation brought forward and if there is found to be anything inimical to the country, they must oppose it. For the position of leader of this great party throughout the Dominion at the close of his address, the vast audience arose and cheered again and again.

many lively combats with his opponents on the other side of the house and never had he come out second best (applause).

The last session of parliament was the most important for many years, if for nothing else than the passing of the Grand Trunk Pacific bill.

Referring to this Dr. Daniel said that the government had placed in the hands of a foreign corporation and in the hands of a foreign country the means of receiving whatever money is made through the transportation from the great west. He did not think the people of this country would submit to the government spending $170,000,000 and then placing the whole enterprise in the hands of a foreign corporation.

When the Grand Trunk Pacific bill came up before the house the opposition had offered amendment after amendment, but to one and all the government replied that they had signed the contract, or in other words, they had placed themselves in the hands of the Grand Trunk people and would have to abide by the decision. The government said: "We shall pass this bill whether the people of Canada like it or not."

Dr. Daniel quoted from the last part of the great speech made by Mr. Borden against the Grand Trunk Pacific bill, in which he pointed out the defects, and urged that the matter be left to the people to decide whether Canada should have a government owned railway or a railway owned corporation.

Mr. Borden's policy, said Dr. Daniel, was a definite one. It was not one policy in one city and a different one in another city. It was the same for the port of St. John, for Halifax, Montreal and Vancouver (applause).

The people were becoming educated to the interests of the country and in a short time they would have the privilege of asserting their rights and electing to the premiership of this dominion, R. L. Borden (prolonged applause).

As Dr. Daniel called for three cheers for Mr. Borden at the close of his address, the vast audience arose and cheered again and again.

HALIFAX RACES.

HALIFAX, N. S., Sept. 8--About four thousand persons witnessed the races on the provincial exhibition track today.

The free-for-all was won in three straight heats by Phenon W., owned by W. J. Furbush, West Newton, Mass. The best time, 2:14, broke the track record. Simmasse, the Halifax mare, finished second in each heat, forcing the winner in the first heat to lower the track record. Helen R. of Springfield stables, won third place, and Gilly, owned by E. Leblou, was a close fourth.

The three-minute class had seven starters. It was a fine race for first money and it took five heats to decide it. The first heat was won by Ralph S., with Louise M. second, and Epiphona of Fredericton, third.

Epiphona finished first in the second heat, with Ralph S. second, and Louise M. third. The third heat was won by Epiphona, second to Ralph S., and fourth to Hazen Gay. Best time, 2:30.

Ex-Sheriff Spencer Stirling of Fredericton drove Louise M., his horse, in the three-minute class. His win was a popular one and he was loudly cheered.

Among the hundreds of dress-makers in this city are at least scores of good ones. A woman who has a poor dressmaker is handicapped even more than the man with bungling tailor. And once again, here the want ads. offer to her full emancipation--for they will find for her the right dress-maker.
