BELL'S PIANO STORE

When I took them to the store the grocer wanted eggs instead. I gathered roses long ago, in other days, in other scenes, and people said, "You ought to go and dig the weeds out of your beans." A million roses bloomed and died; a million more will die today. That man is wise who lets them slide and gathers up the bales of hay.

ST. GEORGE'S SOCIETY

IN QUARTERLY SESSION

St. George Society met in quarterly session last evening with the president, J. C. Anderton, occupying the chair. Alfred Porter, who has held the office of vice-president for the past two terms and who has been a member of the society for several years, tendered his resignation from that office. Dr. James H. Frink, the second vice-president, was chosen in his stead. W. J. Earle was elected second vice-president to succeed Dr. Frink.

The charitable committee read a most interesting report, showing that more financial assistance had been rendered to persons, than was the case in former
