ELOQUENT PREACHER AT ST. DAVID'S CHURCH

The congregation of St. David's Presbyterian church listened to two able and masterly sermons yesterday by Dr. Isaac H. McDonald, of Burn's church, Mosa, Ont. The text for the morning sermon, taken from Luke ii, 10, "I bring you tidings of great joy," was alriy delivered and listened to with rapt attention.

At the evening service Dr. McDonald spoke on "The Prodigal Son." His sermon was divided into four parts, picturing in a vivid and masterful way the young man eaway, the young man coming to himself, and the young man's welcome home.

During the service Mrs. McNeil and Miss Thomson sang a duet, "Consider and Hear of Me," in an excellent manner.

HAD A HARD TIME

MONCTIN, N. B., June 6.—It took Dan McDonald of Sydney, C. B., champion middleweight wrestler of Canada, twenty-six minutes and twenty-two seconds to throw Geo. Nadef, Assyrian strong man, in a bout in the Grand Opera House here Saturday night.

The programme arranged was to throw five men. Only two appeared, McLeod, St. John, and Nedef. McDonald first tackled McLeod, and it only took him thirty seconds to floor the St. John man. The Cape Breton champion then took on Nedef, and the three hundred spectators present witnessed a hard struggle before the champion was given the decision.

Stotesbury of Philadelphia took first and second places in pair of light harness horses, four years old or over, roadsters or trotters, undocked: Third and fourth honors in thise competition went to American bred horses owned by Walter Winans. The greatest interest, however, was taken in the judging of 29 novices, single harnessed horses, over 14 and not exceeding 15 hands. England has herefore been supreme in this class. The 29 entries were finally weeded out until it was a question whether first money should go to Judge Moore's mare phyllis or to Mathias, a brown stallion owned by Alexander Bowle of London. The judges, after a long consideration, declared in favor of Mathias and gave Phyllis second prize. The splendid display of American horses and the elaborately decorated quarters provided for them have called for the loudest of praise from the local was papers and the visitors to the show ST. The match could safely be called a fair one, as there were a number of spots where excellent fielding was shown. As seen by the tabulated score both pitchers were hit freely, while the error column was not too large for a nine inning game. Callaghan and Howe were the opposing box artists. Thel atter was quite steady and fanned five men. During the early stages of the game, Callaghan pitched strongly, but towards the close showed signs of weakening. He had four strike-outs to his credit.

The Ancient Order of Hiberians' team again demonstrated its inability to play the same class of bal las the St. Peter's when they met defeat in the Inter-Society League race on Saturday evening by a score of 9 to 1. Only three and one half innings were played, but Umpire Carroll awarded the game to the St. Peter's as the A. O. H. endeavored to delay the game. The North Enders had their batting clothes on and had the A. O. H. aggregation at their mercy throughout the play.

Harrington, a new find, was on the slab for the A. O. H., but he could not settle down. His wildness throughout the match was the reason why many reached first. The St. Peters had A. Mahoney in the box and he twirled his usual fast game. The youngster, hawevever, shows a tendency to make a bulk at critical times.

MOB WOULD NOT WAIT FOR LAW TO TAKE ITS COURSE

TALAHASSEE, Fla., June 6—Dangling from a limb of a tree in the county jail yard and within sight of the dome of the Florida State capitol, the lifeless body of Maik Morris, a negro, met the gaze of the people of this city this morning. Condemned to death for the murder of William Langston, late sheriff of this county, the negro would have, within a few weeks, legally paid the penalty of the crime.

weeks, legally paid the penalty of the crime.

A'mob of not more than fifteen men, about four o'clock this morning, dragged Morris from his cell in the jail and strung him up to a tree within the jail enclosure. The masked band then emptied a round of cartridges into the corpse and rode away unmolested.

When the mob arrived at the jail, they brought the jailer to the door with the ruse that they had a prisoner, overpowered him and took his keys. After securing the negro they locked the jailer in Morris' cell and soon accomplished their work. Sheriff Houston was in Georgia at the time.

Morris had been acting strangely, and it is believed that fear that the negro might escape the gallows by feigning insanity, prompted the act of the mob.
