

LOCAL AND PROVINCIAL.

Disciples of Isaac Walton complain that the water continues too high for trout, but some grand salmon fishing is reported.

James Ready, of Fairville, is about to pull down the old wooden structure which has done service for years as a dry goods and grocery store and will erect a fine, new brick building on its site.

Cain McCoy, an aged Indian of Kel Ground, was taken to the Provincial Lunatic Asylum last Thursday by Constable Lemie Rensou. This is the first instance to our knowledge of an Indian being sent to that institution—Newcastle Advocate.

Geo. A. Riecker, the Princess street druggist, has sold his business to E. Clinton Brown, the transfer being made Thursday afternoon. Mr. Riecker retains the book debts. Eventually he expects to remove to the United States where he will engage in business. Mr. Brown's new branch will be managed by his brother, Burpee E. Brown.

The L. C. R. depot Thursday afternoon received another carpeting of rice when Ernest D. Thomas and his bride, who was formerly Miss Florence C. Nixon, of Peters street, left on their wedding tour. The wedding took place at the home of the bride's father, J. L. Nixon, 8 E. Peters street, at 4 p. m. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas left on the 6:05 train for Scarborough (Me.). Boston and other American cities and will reside at 125 Waterloo street on their return.

At the request of a large number of St. John and Fairville Orangemen, Welford, L. O. L., No. 111, will hold a picnic at Welford July 12. An excursion has been arranged from St. John and intermediate points. Return tickets are on sale at C. P. R. ticket office, King street and at Fairville. Tickets will be sold on the trains of that date, leaving St. John at 9:25 a. m. and at 1:45 p. m. The proceeds will be devoted to completing the new hall.

MARCONI MAY BE HERE.

Wireless Telegraphy Man Expected to Pass Through St. John for Sydney.

It is possible that Signor Marconi may pass through St. John in a few days on his way to Glace Bay, Cape Breton, to inspect his signal station which has been erected at that place. The station is now in full working order and has been tested by the staff in attendance there. The electric plant has been found to work perfectly satisfactory and all that is needed now is the magic presence of the great inventor to start the system going.

A Glace Bay man, who was in the city yesterday, told The Telegraph that Marconi will bring to Glace Bay with him a corps of 35 assistants.

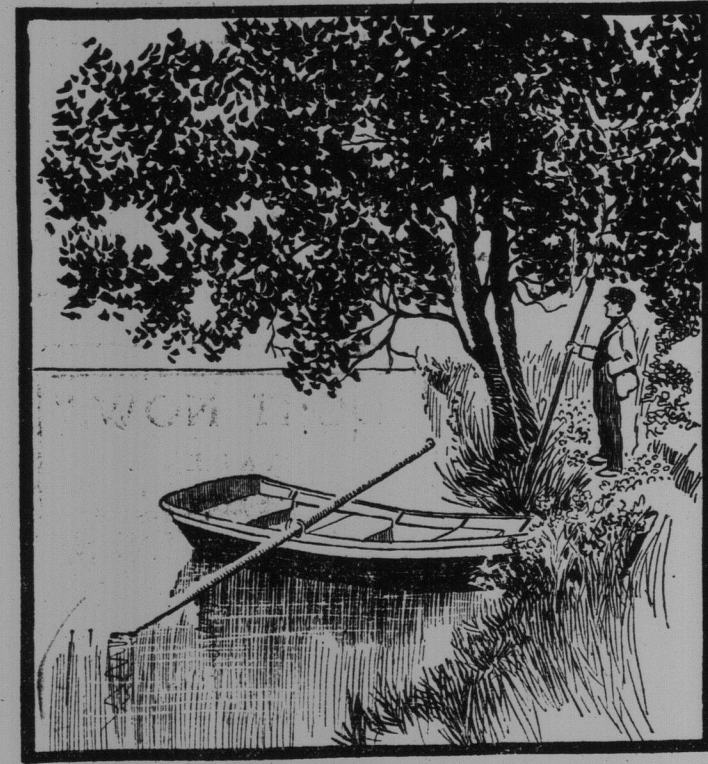

It is also stated by a gentleman who claims to have received his information from Marconi during the great inventor's stay in Cape Breton, that now that he has his station erected he is rather dubious as to the success of his experiments there and he is inclined to the opinion that his system of wireless telegraphy will require such perfecting before it is in such shape that messages can be sent from Glace Bay to Cornwall. If his work at Glace Bay proves entirely successful Marconi will go at once to Cape Town to erect a station there.

Millions Are Involved.

New Haven, Conn., July 1.—Incident to the suit brought against the executors of the Henry B. Plant estate by Charles B. and Horace C. Hosley, of Waterbury, who are contesting the removal of the Plant property to New York, an attachment was placed today on $17,000,000 in stock held by the Plant Investment Company. This company is owner of the Plant system of railways and steamships and the attachment was served on the assistant secretary of the company, Paul Harrison, of this city. Attachments amounting to $100,000 have been placed also in the same suit on real estate of the late millionaire in Connecticut.

Because sweet briar became too abundant in Pennsylvania, the plant was introduced to head them off, as it were, by eating them, but the briar came out ahead by killing the goats.

MORE HAPPY BRIDES.

Several Weddings in the City Yesterday.

Farren-Richardson.

William J. Farren and Miss Bertha M. Richardson were united in marriage Wednesday evening in Holy Trinity church by the pastor, Rev. Father Walsh. Mr. Farren is bookkeeper with A. Isaacs. The bride's home is on Millidge Lane. She is the daughter of James Richardson. She was attended by her sister, Miss Nellie K. Richardson, and by Miss Clara M. Farren, sister to the groom. M. D. Sweeney supported the groom. The bride was charmingly dressed in white silk muslin with trimmings of white ribbon and carried a bouquet of roses. The bridesmaids were attired in black and white muslin with bebe ribbon trimmings, wore picture hats and carried bouquets of roses. After the ceremony, the bride and groom were driven to the bride's home on Millidge Lane, where luncheon was served and a dance enjoyed, the music being furnished by the St. John Orchestra. Mr. and Mrs. Farren will reside for the summer at Silver Falls. Among the gifts received was a substantial check from the groom's employers. The unders at the wedding ceremony were Arthur O'Rourke, Frank Trainor, Owen O'Neil and John Stanton.

Porlier-McMullin.

The cathedral was the scene of a pretty wedding Wednesday morning, when Miss Mary Agnes McMullin and Joseph L. Porlier were united in marriage. The ceremony was performed by Rev. E. J. Murray in the presence of many friends. The bride, who was gown in royal blue broadcloth and lawn tulle, was attended by Miss Nellie McMullin in old rose crepe de chene, duchesse lace, and black hat. Henry Dady assisted the groom. After the ceremony and a wedding breakfast, the bride and groom were driven to the residence of the bride's father, Mr. Hirsch, of New York, representing a syndicate, was in the city this week and returned to New York Wednesday. He sent over portions of the outfit of the proposed line and had several interviews with a civil engineer, who came from Boston to meet him here.

When questioned by The Telegraph, Mr. Hirsch said the matter was pending, and while nothing had been decided it was quite within the bounds of probability that the road would be constructed. On his return to New York he will report to the capitalists he represents and may return to St. John in a few weeks.

Pierpont Morgan to Try Light Cure.

London, July 2.—It is understood that J. Pierpont Morgan is to undergo treatment by Prof. Finson's electric light system for a face affected by cancer. The treatment is said to be an outgrowth of the development of the X ray, and has met with great success. Two kinds of apparatus are used in the light cure. One is the regular X-ray machine and the other a device that resembles a search light, and is like it in effect. The latter apparatus consists of a large cylinder, within which is an electric light of 20,000 candle power that can be concentrated upon the affected part. In using this mechanism in facial treatment, the face is bound in such a way as to exert pressure upon the part to be treated, and the blood is thus forced away from the spot as much as possible. The light is then played upon the part of the skin which is to be treated.

The electric light treatment is used in case of lupus or tuberculosis of the skin, and is also used in the treatment of cancer. The light produces chemical action in the affected part that is of the same nature as the action produced by light in photography. Through the resulting chemical action a healthy condition of the tissues is brought about.

Because sweet briar became too abundant in Pennsylvania, the plant was introduced to head them off, as it were, by eating them, but the briar came out ahead by killing the goats.

HIT BY A TRAIN.

Accident at Petitedoc Wednesday; Man Badly Injured.

A distressing accident occurred Wednesday morning at Petitedoc, when Wm. Williams, of Petitedoc, aged about 70 years, was struck by the 4 o'clock a. m. train from Moncton. He was hurled down the embankment, had his leg broken and received other very serious injuries. Word from Petitedoc is that Mr. Williams was on board the train when it arrived and had jumped off at the rear. Just then the train backed up, resulting in the accident. He was carried to the nearest house and Doctor Burnett, of Sussex was summoned.

Giving Up Lumbering for Ranching.

Menominee, Mich., July 1.—As timber grows scarcer in the upper peninsula of Michigan and northern Wisconsin, agriculture and stock raising are replacing lumbering. George Haskard, of Conz (Wis.), has leased 600 acres, and is turning them into a cattle ranch. S. M. Stephenson, of this city, has purchased seven hundred head of cattle at the Chicago yards and shipped them to the Thunder River region, where the timber has been cut. The progress made in lumbering in the peninsula during the last decade has been striking but only recently has stock raising begun to develop.

Westmorland Sunday School Convention.

The annual Westmorland County S. S. convention will be held in the Methodist church at Baie Verte July 10 and 11. A helpful programme has been arranged and prominent speakers will address the meetings. It is desirable that the Sunday schools in the county appoint delegates who will attend the convention. Sunday school teachers and those interested in Sunday school work are invited to be present. Reduced fares on railways will be granted. Delegates should ask for standard certificates when purchasing their tickets.

Dunlop-Dougherty.

Lakeville, Carleton county, July 2.—The marriage took place recently at the residence of the bride's father, of Miss Margaret E. Dougherty and Gideon Dunlop, of Campbell's Settlement. Rev. H. M. Brown performed the ceremony, after which a luncheon was enjoyed by the guests. Mr. and Mrs. Dunlop will reside in Campbell's Settlement.

The teachers of private schools in China are very poorly remunerated. They get about one cent a day for each pupil.

SENT TO PENITENTIARY.

THE TWO HOLMS AND TOBIN ARE SENTENCED.

Arthur Holms Get Additional Six Months for Cutting Policeman Rankine—Briggs Free on His Own Recognizance—Defendant Wins in Galbraith vs. McGillivray.

The case of William J. Alexander vs. the C. P. R. judgment of nonsuit was ordered. He asked the plaintiff had gone to him and offered half the proceeds of this action if he was successful, if he would help him out in this suit. The plaintiff was called in rebuttal and stated he never made any such offer, but had said he would defray Mr. Richardson's expenses while he was attending the trial. In the afternoon the case was given to the jury. His honor submitted a number of questions. These the jury answered in favor of the defendant. His honor accordingly ordered a verdict to be entered for the defendant. The plaintiff applied for a stay of execution, which was granted; Daniel Mullin, K. C., for the plaintiff, and J. B. M. Baxter for the defendant.

In the case of the King vs. Briggs, for breaking jail, on motion of Mr. Baxter, the prisoner was discharged on his own recognizance in the sum of $200. Hon. H. A. McKewen requested to this, but stated that he wished to say that in his opinion the finding of the jury in the case against Briggs, for theft, was directed against the weight of evidence, and he was not at all satisfied that the prisoner was innocent of the crime charged. This ended the business of the court. All the other cases on the docket, both jury and non-jury, were made remanet. Court adjourned sine die.

Probate Court.

The last will and testament of the late Grace Vernon was admitted to probate and letters testamentary were granted to George E. Fairweather and F. O. Allison, executors, under the will. The estate which is valued at $30,000 real and $800 personal property is divided among Moses P. Vernon, Amos Vernon, and H. F. E. Vernon, nephews of the deceased, and Mrs. Jane M. Smith, a niece, Hanington & Hanington, executors.

The last will and testament of Susan Hanington, widow of Charles E. Harding, was admitted to probate and letters testamentary were granted to a son of the deceased, William L. Harding, of Yorkmouth (N. S.). The estate consists of $1,200 personal property. Barnhill & Sanford, executors.

Rankin-Cunningham.

A very pretty and quiet event took place Wednesday evening when the popular member of the police force, Chas. H. Rankin, was married to Miss Bessie Headst Cunningham, at the home of the groom's brother, E. M. Rankin, German street. The bride was handsomely and suitably dressed and looked particularly well. Only the relatives of the couple were present. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Doctor Morrison, of St. David's church. Officer Rankin's friends are many and congratulations will be hearty.

COUNTRY MARKET.

Some Prices Drop—Supply of Produce and Fish Fair.

In the fish market there is but little change. Salmon is in only fair supply; halibut, cod and haddock are scarce and mackerel is very scarce. The produce market is fair as regards supply though the holiday injured it some. Mutton has dropped a few cents, and bacon, chickens and vegetables are cheaper.
