

Hon. R. Laflamme, Q.C. In 1893 he formed a partnership with Edmund Guerin, which still subsists. He is a mem. of the Council of the Montreal Dist. bar, and, in 1896, was elected to the Genl. Provl. Council of the bar. He has been retained as counsel in many important cases, both in the Provl. cts. and before the Supreme Ct. at Ottawa, and takes rank among the rising men of his profession. Mr. M. is a R. C. and unm. Politically, he is a Lib., and one of Sir W. Laurier's most devoted followers. He unsuccessfully opposed Mr. (now Judge) Girouard in Jacques Cartier at the Dom. g.-e. 1891. At the g. e. 1896, he was returned for Hochelaga, defeating Dr. Lachapelle, the former mem., by 506 votes.—36.2 St. Hubert St., Montreal.

"A clever debater, a forcible and even eloquent speaker, and a sound thinker."—Herald.

MAGEE, Charles, banker and capitalist, is the s. of the late Chas. Magee, of the Tp. of Nepean, Carleton, Ont., by his wife, Frances Delamere. B. in Nepean, Aug. 16, 1840. he was ed. at Ottawa, and devoted himself to a mercantile life. He was for yrs. a mem. of the dry goods firm of Magee & Russell, Ottawa, retiring therefrom, 1871. In the following year he became admnr. and sole trustee of the Sparks estate, and, in 1876, associated himself with the late Robt. Blackburn and the late Jas. MacLaren, in acquiring the whole of the vacant lands within the city of Ottawa, owned by the By estate. He was one of the organizers of the Bank of Ottawa, of which he was apptd. V.-P. He succeeded to the presidency on the death of Jas. MacLaren, Mch., 1892. He sat for one yr. in the Ottawa City Council, and was Presdt. of the Central Can. Exhn. Assn., during the first 4 yrs. of its existence, retiring, 1892. He is one of the largest owners of stock in the Bristol Iron Co., is a dir. of the Central Ont. Ry., of the Hull Electric Ry., of the Trusts Corporation of Ont.,

and Presdt. of the C. Ross Co., Ltd. (dry goods). A Con. in politics, he was elected Presdt. of the Ottawa Con. Assn., 1895; resigning, 1897. In religious faith, an Ang., he m. Frances, dau. of T. M. Blasdell, Ottawa.—Cor. of Lisgar and Cartier Sts., Ottawa; Rideau Club.

MAGEE, James, Q.C., is the s. of the late Richard Magee, of Liverpool, Eng., and was b. in that city. Ed. at the London (Ont.) Grammar Sch., he was called to the bar, 1867, and has since practised in London. Declining the Deputy Ministership of the Interior, 1878, he was made subsequently a Q. C. by the Ont. Govt., elected a Bencher, 1891, and apptd. Co. Crown Attv., and Clk. of the Peace for Middlesex, 1893. A Lib. in politics, he was an unsuccessful candidate for London, at the Provl. g. e. 1879. He served as a volunteer on the Western frontier, 1865-66.—London, Ont.

MAGILL, The Very Rev. George Jehoshaphat, Dean of Rhode Island (Prot. Ep.), is the s. of the late Joseph Magill, formerly of Montreal and Quebec. B. in Montreal, Sept. 19, 1833, he was ed. at Bishop's Coll., Lennoxville (B.A., 1856; M.A., 1870), and was for some time Prof. of Eng. and Classical Lit. in St. Francis Coll., Richmond, P.Q. Ordained deacon, 1858, and priest, 1859, by the late Bp. Mountain, he became a travelling mission. in the E. T. Thereafter, he removed to the U. S., and was afterwards apptd. Rector of Trinity Ch., Newport, and Dean of Rhode Island.—Trinity Rectory, Newport, R.I.

MAGRATH, Hon. Charles Alexander, D.L.S., legislator, is the s. of the late Bolton Magrath, Insp. of Schs., and was b. in North Augusta, Ont., Apl. 22, 1860. Ed. by private tuition, he qualified for and was admitted a P. L. S. in Ont., Quebec and Man., and subsequently became a D.L.S. and a D.T.S. He removed to the N. W. T., 1878, and practised his profession there for 7 yrs., being then apptd. Land Agent for the Alberta Ry. and Coal Co. He has