Class of '93 Update

Congratulations to those students about to complete their degree requirements and graduate in the class of 1993.

As Dean of Students, I take pride in the numerous contributions made by so many students in so many ways to the quality of campus life at UNB and also to the community life in Fredericton. I trust that your support of your community will continue into your personal and professional lives. In the time remaining, I hope that you will participate fully in the several Grad Class activities including the Class Project for '93.

As you prepare to make the transition out of university, we hope that you will take with you many positive and warm memories of UNB in order to serve as effective ambassadors when the occasion arises. Our hope is that you will retain and even strengthen Reunions and other Alumni/ae events. And our Faculties are always grateful to have their graduates keep in touch - your feedback is especially helpful and welcome.

Tom Auster

My wish is that each of you, in whatever direction life may lead, will find the resources to respond to the challenges ahead with enthusiasm, assurance and achievement. May your life be wonderful, exciting and enriching - I assure you that life will be as prosperous as you will permit since each of us will get from life in proportion to what we contribute to it.

Congratulations to all and best wishes for the future.
