sports Rod Shoveller Memorial wrap up

by Gazette staff

Although they didn't win the big prize the Dalhousie Tigers had the pleasure of beating the Saint Mary's Huskies 79-75 to win the consolation game of the Pepsi Rod Shoveller Memorial basketball tournament last Sunday.

A collection of former university tournament.

The Tigers and the Huskies were relegated to the consolation game after they were bounced in the semifinals.

and high school players, the Nova drubbing at the hands of SMU ear-Scotia All-Stars, defeated the Ot- lier in the season. Shawn Plancke, tawa Gee Gees 95-79 to win the who was selected a tournament allstar, led the Tigers with 25 points with Gary Blair adding 18 in the consolation victory. Blair notched four three-pointers in the win.

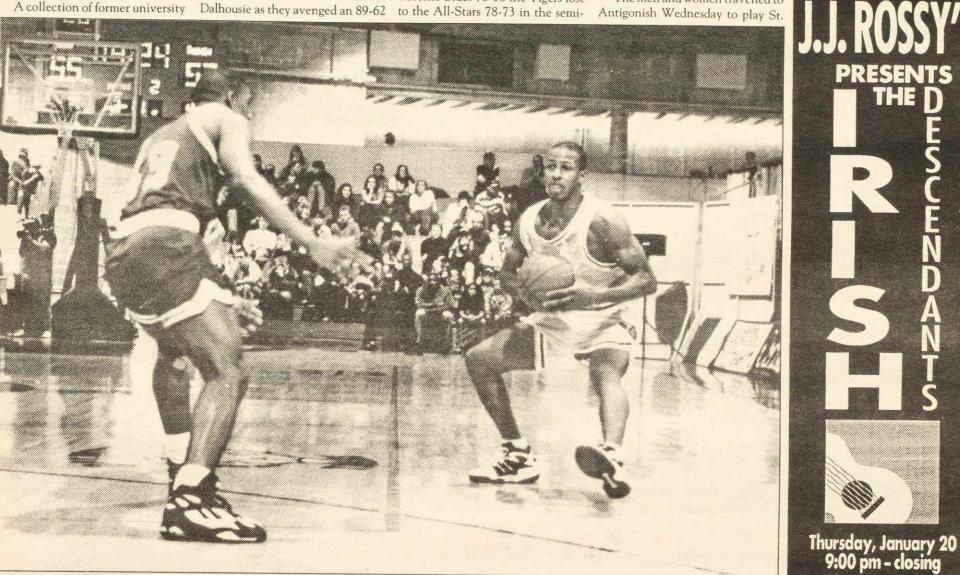

After beating the University of The win was a vindication for Toronto Blues 78-56 the Tigers lost

The Dal women got the second half off to a good start with a 79-55 victory over the Acadia Axettes last Saturday in Wolfville. Carolyn Wares led the Tigers with a 25 points and 13 rebounds while Jennifer Offman added 21 points.

The men and women travelled to Antigonish Wednesday to play St.

FX. The results were unavailable at press time. This Saturday the Tigers host the University College of Cape Breton Capers. The women play at 6 pm with the men following at 8 pm. The men and women travel to Acadia Tuesday.

Meeting: There will be a meeting of Gazette sports reporters Thursday, January 13, (tonight). The meeting will be in room 312 (Gazette office) third floor SUB at 7 p.m. The meeting is for both the current stable of writers and anyone else interested.

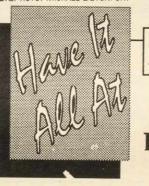

Yours, Frank, sports editor.

Dalhousie Athletes of the Week

Dalhousie's Shawn Mantley takes control during weekend basketball action. DALPHOTO: MICHAEL DEVONPORT

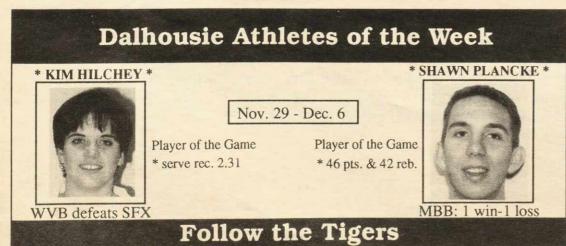

(January 1 - August-31, 1994)

WVB: 10 st. blk, 8 rej., 13 digs

Follow the Tigers

Editor's Note: Thanks to Christmas holidays we have four athletes of the week.

Dalplex has 180,000 sq. ft. of activity space designed to meet your recreational needs. Dalplex offers all this, and much more: • no-fee squash/racquetball courts • 1/6 mile indoor running track 2 hardwood basketball courts • 50,000 sq. ft. fieldhouse • 2 fully equipped weight rooms permanent indoor rock climbing wall+ locker/change rooms with saunas skating at the Dal Arena + training & accreditation required

(For details on qualifying for special membership rates, phone 494-3372) *plus gst. Part-Time Dalhousie Student Family Rate: $185+GST

For more information phone: 494-3372