

Ottawa, 7th December, 1910.

I beg to say that in consequence of the report received from Inspector Markle, the Department has decided to defer the work of making repairs to the house occupied by Mr. Gordon at your Agency, until at least the end of January next, when the weather will be more favourable.

Your obedient servant,

Asst. Deputy and Secretary.

McNeill Esq.,
Indian Agent,
Calgary, Alta.
