Ottawa, 21st December, 1914.

Madam,

I beg to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 14th instant, with reference to the estate of your late mother, and note your objections to your brothers selling household goods that were devised to you and also note your claim for nursing and other services against the estate.

In reply I beg to say that one of the executor Peter Winger, is now dead and as his co-executor, John T. Park has declined to act in the matter, William H. Jamieson and Chief Joseph F. Monture have been appointed administrators on the recommendation of the Council of the Six Nations. The Department is sending a copy of your letter to these administrators. If you have any claim against the estate apart from your legacy you should make it up showing all particulars and send it to the administrators for consideration. It will rest with them as to what amount, if any, you will be entitled to with respect to this matter.

Under the terms of your mother's will you were to receive her interest in the piano, sewing machine and trunk, that interest whatever it was cannot be sold

Mrs. Joseph E. Clause,
Hagersville,
Ont.
