

St. Jude's

the grave Carmichael lifted up his voice and prayed:

"Heavenly Father, who art the source of every good and beautiful work, being gathered in the name of the Lord Jesus, and in respect to the memory of thy faithful servant, James Sim, we render thee thanks with one heart for his kindness unto widows and orphans, to poor lads and sick people, whereby he manifested thy love and commended the faith of thy Son. And we earnestly beseech thee to shed abroad the same love in the hearts of thy servants present, and to bestow upon us the same humility, that we also may fulfill our stewardship as he has done, and in the last day may be also accepted of thee through the merits and intercession of Jesus Christ our Lord." And many said Amen.

The family which he had won for himself set up a simple cross, draped with Easter lilies to the memory of their benefactor, with this inscription,

JAMES SIM.

"Well done, good and faithful servant."
