

INDEX—Continued.

	PAGE
Where the second brood larvæ enter the fruit	22
Remarks on the number and destructiveness of the second brood larvæ....	23
Natural enemies of the Codling Moth	24
How the Codling Moth can be successfully combated	26
(1) The destruction of fallen fruit	26
(2) Removal of wormy apples when thinning	26
(3) Banding trees	27
(4) Destruction of moths in storehouses, etc.	27
Spraying	28
When to spray	28
How often to spray	29
Keeping one's own orchard clean independently of his neighbor	29
Spray mixture to use	30
Spray outfits and machines	30
Hose, extension rods and nozzles	31
Tower	32
How to spray	33
Results obtained from a single thorough application immediately after the blossoms fell	34
Results in the Niagara district from one thorough application immediately after the blossoms fell, and a second three weeks later	35
Results on apple scab	35
Insects whose work is likely to be mistaken for that of the Codling Moth....	36
The Lesser Apple Worm	36
The Plum Curculio	37
General rules for spraying orchards for insects and diseases	38