

victory for the right, and by so doing save the youth of today, the men and women of tomorrow, for God and country. But this we cannot do unless our lives are marked by the charity which is Christ's—that symbol of the Lamb, the distinctive character imposed upon the Order by Bishop Bourget through the Foundress: "By your charity you shall be known to be true daughters of Jesus and Mary." May this, our first Mother's abiding trait, be ours everlastingly! It will be, if we, in very truth, let Jesus and Mary be our strength and our glory!

LOYOLA COLLEGE
CORCORAN STREET
BALTIMORE