NOTHING WORSE IN THIS LIFE

Than Headaches—They Are Caused by Bad Stomachs and Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets will Cure Them.

Probably nothing in life is more distressing than a headache. You can't work, you can't rest, you can't eat, and you suffer.

But did it ever occur to you that you suffer from headaches that you have yourself and no one else to blame?

Nine-tenths of all headaches are caused by the stomach not working right. And if you give your stomach a chance it will work right.

Think of the quick lunches you have eaten, of the rich foods you have partaken of, and then confess that you have often overworked your stomach without ever thinking to give it any assistance.

Give it the help it needs. Give it Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets. They always cure all stomach ills. Mr. Joseph Leake, 194 McCaul St., Toronto, says:

"My daughter was troubled with Headaches for a long time. She was cured by Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets. I was troubled with Dyspepsia and Bilelessness and one box of Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets cured me."

A Colossal Idol.

Two miles from Kamakura and about twenty from Yokohama, in Japan, on a terrace near the temple sits the most gigantic idol in the world. It is the brazen image of a deity and dates from the reign of the Emperor Shomu, who died A. D. 748. The dimensions of this idol are colossal. Its height from the base of the lotus flower upon which he sits to the top of his head is sixty-three and a half feet. The face is sixteen feet in length and nine and a half feet wide, the eyes are three feet nine inches from corner to corner, the eyebrows six and a half feet and the ears eight and a half feet. The chest is twenty feet in depth, and the middle finger is exactly five feet long. The fifty-six leaves of the lotus throne are each ten feet long and six feet wide.

London English a Base Jargon.

The vigor and purity of a language can only be preserved by the fashionable class, the class whom in matters of social everyday imitates, speaking it well. But how can English be well spoken when some of the greatest ladies speak the idiom of Massachusetts through their noses and a large proportion of the men cough the idiom of Frankfurt from their throats? The constant babbling of broken English at dinner tables and in drawing rooms is becoming quite fatiguing, and as a result the English speak their tongue worse than it was ever spoken before. Everybody knows the temptation to speak a sort of baby pigeon English to a foreigner in the strange hope that it may be more intelligible to him. This and the slang taught us by the Yankees have reduced the English language as spoken by smart people to a base jargon.

THERAPY MEDICINES TO THE DOGS

At best they are unpleasant, often useless. You have some disease of the nose, throat or lungs. Doctors would call it bronchitis, asthma or catarrh. The common root of these diseases is germ or microbe irritation. Catarrh is not only destroys disease germs, it does more, it heals diseased and inflamed tissue. The disease is not only cured, but its return is forever prevented by using Catarrhazone, which is splendid also for colds, coughs and irritable throat. Remember, you inhale Catarrhazone—Nakur's own cure—use no other but Catarrhazone—it's the best catarrh cure made.

REFORMERS IN RUSSIA

WHAT THE ZEMSTVOS ARE AND WHAT THEY ARE ASKING.

Moderate Changes in the Direction of Constitutional Government Are Demanded—Do Not Sympathize With Nihilists—Powers of the Zemstvos—Is a New Era About to Dawn for People of Russia?

It is the belief of many that a new political and economic era is at hand in Russia and that constitutional government will come ere long as the result of the movement led by the presidents of Zemstvos or local assemblies. The memorial adopted by these presidents at their recent meeting in St. Petersburg created a deep impression upon the Czar when presented to him by representatives of the Zemstvos, and the prediction is made that the abolition of the bureaucratic system is not far away. This system, the Zemstvo memorial declares, has caused estrangement between the people and the supreme power and destroyed that confidence of the people in their Government which is so essential to a healthy national life.

GRAND DUKE SERGIUS.

Between the people and the supreme power and destroyed that confidence of the people in their Government which is so essential to a healthy national life.

The Russian Zemstvos originated about forty years ago in the reign of Alexander II, being an evolution from the primitive commune and municipal corporation. They are local elective bodies, and such duties as the construction of public works, building of roads, regulation of public health and education come under their jurisdiction. The members are chosen for three years, and three classes of voters participate in their election. The voting classes include landed proprietors, burghers, mechanics and peasants.

These assemblies have come gradually to represent the aspirations of the people to possess a voice in the Government of the Empire, but the bureaucrats of the Imperial Court have constantly sought to repress the Zemstvos and curtail their growth.

The Zemstvos' representatives stand for freedom of conscience and of the press, freedom of speech and freedom of meeting and association. They also ask for the creation of some elective body through which the people may make known their needs and participate in legislation. In the presentation of their memorial to the Emperor it was held that an important victory has been gained for progressive ideas in Russia, for the opinion of the Zemstvos that the continuation of the bureaucratic system and a policy of harshness and repression must in the end spell revolution and ruin has been expressed in concrete form and laid before the Czar.

According to a Russian newspaper, The Novosti, thirty-four of the eighty-seven Russian provinces now have legally constituted Zemstvos. The presidents, while themselves landed proprietors, take a patriotic stand in regard to matters affecting the interests of the peasantry and lower classes generally. They are

A Joke He Told.

In the strain and excitement of trading on Wall street the brokers, says Mr. E. C. Stedman in the Century Magazine, often relax into wild merriment and play boish pranks. On one occasion an old Indian with a young brave, a boy and two squaws entered the gallery. At once the "floor" put forth every effort to break down their stolidity. A war whoop had no effect. A war dance did not arouse even a smile.

At last a baldheaded man was thrust into a ring of young fellows, his hands held behind him, a knife drawn around his waist, and the hummer of a futile attempt to detach his scalp was enacted.

This was at last too much for the dignity of the aborigines. The boy broke into a broad laugh, in which the squaws joined; the young warrior grinned in spite of himself, and at last the gentleman of grim humor overspread the face of the ruthless old chief, who may have been the perpetrator of as many atrocities as Geronimo.

YOU ARE AILING.

Not quite sick—but robbed of ambition to work—find it hard to think of doing, but bad enough for life to be pretty dull. There is a remedy—Perferrone—that quickly lifts that half dead feeling. Greatly helps Perferrone makes you feel good; it sharpens the dull appetite, makes it keen as a razor.

BLOOD! Perferrone makes lots of it. The rich nourishing kind that vitalizes the whole body. You'll be wonderfully quickened, immensely strengthened, feel hearty and vigorous after using Perferrone. Buoyant health, surplus vigor and energy—only all come from this great restorative. Fifty cents buys a box of fifty tablets at all dealers.

One man can see into futurity just as far as another can, and none of them can tell whether the world will be in existence to-morrow.

A HOME SHAMPOO.

How to Clean the Scalp and Have the Hair Soft and Fluffy.

Washing the hair is a task most women dislike, and even the girl who can least afford the dollar a month necessary to a professional shampoo prefers to pay it at a sacrifice rather than bother to wash her own hair. Yet if the work is gone about in the right manner at home it need not be difficult at all.

The first thing is to prepare a shampoo liquid. Take a square inch of some good soap, shave it fine and dissolve it in half a cup of hot water. Then add a teaspoonful of violet ammonia and the raw white of an egg. Beat these thoroughly and strain through a wire sieve. Now stand with the head over a basin, pour a little of the shampoo over the scalp and rub briskly with both hands. Use all the liquid in this way, rubbing it thoroughly on the scalp. After this wash the scalp with several basins of warm water and then wash the long hair in the basin of water. Rinse by holding the head over the bathtub and pouring over it a stream of warm water, keeping this up until the water that drips from the hair is perfectly clean. Then dash with cold water to close the pores and prevent taking cold.

You are now ready to dry the hair. First wrap it in a thick towel and wring thoroughly. Then spread a dry towel across the back, throw the hair back and rub the scalp well and dry. It may take some time, but it is the best possible means of drying the hair. Then dash with cold water to close the pores and prevent taking cold.

PEG DRESSES.

A Grandmother's Hint About Gowns and Their Wearing.

"The way to be well dressed," said grandmother, "is never to have 'peg dresses.' That was my mother's rule, and I have always made it mine.

"What are 'peg dresses'? Why, gowns that hang in one's closet, are not often worn and get a little out of style, by which I mean those for dressy occasions. Most of us have but one, which is worn so seldom that it becomes a problem to keep it always in style, for there is a limit even to the changing of sleeves and alteration of the adorn
