ALBION HOTEL,

STRATFORD, ONTARIO,

D. L. CAVEN, Proprietor.

Having leased for a term of years, the commodious premises known as the "Waverley House," in Stratford, I have refitted and refurnished the Building throughout.

I hope in the future, as in the past, to be able to merit a continuance of the liberal patronage heretofore favored me. With increased facilities, I shall be better enabled to accommodate the travelling public.

The house will in future be known as "The Albion Hotel."

"The Illustrated Weekly," published in New York, by T. E Moore, at $3.00 a year post paid, is a large, new, family and literary paper—pure, instructive and amusing; half of its pages full of beautiful pictures every week, and the other half containing the choicest reading matter—moral but unsectarian. A large Engraving, 17 x 24, accompanies the paper every week as a supplement. These are exquisite fac-similes of the finest steel engravings, copied by the new process of the Graphic Co.; are on heavy tinted paper, with margin suitable for framing, and are really a fine art production of the year. Besides, every subscriber is presented with the chromo, "Gold Fish, Fruit and Flower" (24 x 30) in color, never produced by Ramsay. Not only the largest and finest premium ever given, but the most wonderfully beautiful ever produced. The combination is unequalled. It sells itself. Be quick if you want an agency. Anybody can get from $5 to $25 per day. Liberal terms given, and complete outfit sent for $3. Money refunded if not perfect. Address at once
