WHEAT

The wheat market has assumed a much stronger tone, and prices have advanced since last writing. The European markets rule firm and on the whole the situation to hoost prices in the speculative market. At Chicago new price records are being made every day. On Friday May wheat closed at $1.50%, and July at $1.60%. Reports from the crop areas have not been of the best, though there is so much that it is never safe to rely on them absolutely. A stronger feature in the situation is the decrease in world shipments and in the amount of wheat in sight. Last week the visible supply in the United States decreased to make the supplying the Canada by $2,000 bush. May wheat closed on Friday at Winnipeg at $1.15%, and July wheat at $1.16%. The local market here is strong and higher, Ontarlo wheat is required to the control of t WHEAT at $1.15%. The local market here is strong and higher.
