to such a degree that she had neither eyes nor ears for anything else.

variety of shades of green wool over a admiration; "how soft and yellow! Why, they are like real live birds, ducklings.

"Oh, oh!" exclaimed Lady Jane,

Lady Jane held out her pink palm,

Lady Jane unknowingly had solved the financial mystery connected with the d'Hautreve ladies, and at the same time she had made another valuable

TO BE CONTINUED.

In a letter of invitation to Arch bishop Corrigan to be present at the dedication, October 22nd, of the State building at the Columbian Exposition, Dr. Chauncey Depew, President of the under the auspices of your Church, and that it was the influence of a distinguished prelate which secured for Columbus the countenance of the Spanish authorities, and the further inter-first set foot is now under your ecclesiastical jurisdiction, render your presence on the occasion peculiarly appro-

A Tonic and Reconstructor.

A Tonte and Reconstructor.

Mr. C. Harper, Ottawa, Ont., writes:—"I have pleasure in stating that your Pink Pills are a wonderful tonic and reconstructor of the system. Since beginning their use, I have gained, on an average, a pound of flesh a week." All dealers or, post paid, 50c. a box, or six boxes for $2.50. Beware of imitations and substitutes. Dr. Williams' Med. Co., Brockville, Ont.

For Young or Old.

Children and adults are equally benefited by the use of Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup, the new and successful cough remedy. It stops coughs in one night, and may be relied on as an effectual remedy for colds, asthma, bronchitis and similar troubles, Price 25 and 50c. at druggists.

Minard's Liniment cures Colds, etc.

herself.

priate.'

friend for herself.

FIVE-MINUTE SERMONS.

Twenty-fourth Sunday after Pentecost.

MARRYING OUT OF THE CHURCH. In our course of instructions on marriage, my dear friends, we have so far spoken chiefly of the care which should be taken in the selection of the person who is to be one's constant com-panion through life, and shown that not only earthly happiness, but even the salvation of the soul, may depend on this choice being made wisely. will now go on to consider the ceremony of marriage itself.

Some people, though they have always been Catholics and lived among Catholics, seem to be entirely ignorant of the laws and requirements of the Church on this subject. They appear to think that nothing has to be done but to call on the priest some fine even-ing, and that he will marry them then and there. And if it is not convenient to go to the priest, or if he makes any difficulty about it, why, then a Protestant minister or his honor the mayor will do at a pinch.

Now there are several points which these people need instruction about, and several mistakes which they make in this very important affair. We shall have to consider them separately. And we will begin with the greatest mistake of all which can be fallen into by Catholics who wish to get married, and that is to go to a Protestant minister for the purpose.

What is, then, the harm exactly of going to a Protestant minister to get married? Is it that a Protestant minister is an immoral or vicious character, with whom we should have nothing to do? By no means. He is, indeed, more likely to be to blame for his errors in religion than his people, for he has, from his greater knowledge in religious matters, a better chance to know the truth; but even a minister may be in good faith about his doctrine. And in other respects he may be a worthy and estimable gentle-

But the reason why Catholics should avoid going to him for marriage is that marriage is one of the seven sacraments which our Lord has en-trusted to the keeping of His Church. These sacraments, then, belong to the Church, and we cannot recognize the right of shote who separate from her to administer them or to assist officially at them, though they may have the power to do so validly. Therefore, though marriage be real and valid when contracted before a Protestant minister, and though his own people, of course, are not to blame, if in good faith, for availing themselves for his services, we cannot do so. Indeed, this would be the the case even if marriage were not a sacrament, but merely a religious rite or ceremony ; we cannot allow the ministers of any sect separated from the Church to act as such for us in any religious function; to do so would be to allow their claim to act in the name of Christ. This we can never do, and, above all, where the sacraments are concerned.

Another, and a very weighty reason, why Catholics cannot go before a minister for marriage, is that no one but the Catholic clergy can be supposed to be sufficiently acquainted with the laws of God and of the Church regarding Christian marriage. There are impediments, as they are called, which make marriage invalid unless a dispensation is obtained from the proper source. Some of these are commonly known, such as those which proceed from a near relationship of the parties; but there are others which are not known even by name to the great mass of the faithful, and which a Protestant minister, even should he happen to know them, would never for a moment regard. Catholics therefore, if they go to a minister to get married, rur a great risk of not being really married at all, owing to these impediments not being detected or at-tended to. By the law of the State their marriage may be a good and real one, but in the sight of God it will not be so, if any such impediment should exist, and not have been removed by dispensation; and this holds, even though no suspicion of such an impediment should have arisen. You e, then, how important it is in this matter to consult those who are com-

Natural Manners.

A woman never loses anything by For a woman to be natural is for her to be an object of respect and love. She was created to sway, not as men sway, by strong physical powers, but in her way and by her more gentle powers. A natural woman is the greatest power in the world to-day. By her very nature she conquers, whether she be the wife of a humbles look as ten times millionaire. humble clerk or a ten-times millionaire.

A lady writes the simple truth as follows: Barrie Island, Ont.—"I have been a great sufferer from neuralgia for the last nine years, but, being advised to try St. Jacobs Oil, can now heartily endorse it as being a most excellent remedy for this complaint, as I have been greatly benefited by its use." Mrs. John McLean.

Mrs. John McLean.

Quinsy Cured.

GENTLEMEN.—I used to be troubled with quinsy, having an attack every winter. About five years ago I tried Hagyard's Yellow Oil, applying it inside my throat with a feather. It quickly cured me and I have not since been troubled. I always keep it in the house.

MRS. J. M. LEWIS.

Galley Ave., Toronto, Ont.

Mr. G. W. Macally, Payillion Mountain.

Galley Ave., Toronto, Ont.
Mr. G. W. Macully, Pavillion Mountain, B. C., writes: "Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil is the best medicine I ever used for Rheumatism.
Nearly every winter I am laid up with Rheumatism, and have tried nearly every kind of medicine without getting any benefit, until I used Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil. It has worked wonders for me, and I want another supply for my friends, &c."
Satisfaction is grazanteed to every con-

Satisfaction is guaranteed to every consumer of Hood's Sarsaparilla. One hundred doses in every bottle. No other does this.

LADY JANE.

CHAPTER XIV.

LADY JANE VISITS THE D'HAUTREVES, warded for her patient waiting; as usual, she was lingering on the sidewalk near the green fence, when she heard the key turn in the lock, and suddenly the door opened, and an elderly lady, very, tall and thin, with a mild pale face, appeared and beckoned her to approach.

For a moment Lady Jane felt shy, and drew back, fearing that she had been a little rude in haunting the place so persistently; besides, to her knowledge, she had never before stood in the scale over the destitute of adornment, save over the small fireplace, where hung a fine portrait of a very handsome man dersesed in a rich court dress of the time of Louis XIV. This elegant courtier was Mam'selle Diane's grandfather, the Count d'Hautreve, and under this really fine work of art, on the small mantlepiece, was some of the handicraft of his impoverished granddaughter, which fascinated Lady Jane to such a degree that she had neither One morning Lady Jane was re-warded for her patient waiting; as knowledge, she had never before stood in the presence of "genuine French nobility," and the pale solemn looking woman, who, in spite of her rusty gown, had an air of distinction, rather awed her. However, her good hered. awed her. However, her good breeding soon got the better of her timidity, and she went forward with a charming smile.

"Would you like to come in, my dear, and look at my flowers?" said the lady, opening the gate a little wider for Lady Jane to enter.

wool birds of every color under the sun, while at each end of the mantel were similar little trees, one loaded with soft yellow canaries, the other with little fluffy white things of a species to puzzle an ornithologist. Lady Jane

"Yes, thank you," and Lady Jane smiled and flushed with pleasure when smiled and flushed with pleasure when she caught a glimpse of the beautiful vista beyond the dark figure. "May I bring Tony in, too?"

"Certainly, I want to see him very much, but I want to see you more," and she laid her hand caressingly on the beautiful head of the child. "I've the beautiful head of the child.

been watching you for some time."

"Have you? Why, how did you see
"Have you? Why, how did you see
"Madame d'Hautreve and Mam'selle
"Madame d'Hautreve and Mam'selle

fence; I see more than any one would think," replied the lady smiling.

"And you saw we would the lady smiling."

think," replied the lady smiling.

"And you saw me waiting and waiting; oh, why didn't you ask me in before? I've wanted to come in so much, and did you know I'd been here singing with you?"

"There, you see, my dear, that I was right, I've always said it," quavered the old lady. "I've always said that your birds were wonderful, and the child sees it; children tell the singing with you?"
"No, I didn't know that."

"Are you Mam'selle Diane?" "Are you Mam'selle Diane?"
"Yes, I am Mam'selle Diane; and I've always said that all you needed to what is your name?"

"I'm called Lady Jane."
"Lady Jane,—Lady? Why, do you know that you have a title of you know that you have a title of the ducks. I think, if possible, that they are more natural than the nobility?"
"But I'm not one of the nobility.

"But I'm not one of the nobility. It's my name, just Lady Jane. Papa always called me Lady Jane. I didn't know what nobility was, and Mr. Gex told me that you were one. Now I'll never forget what it is, but I'm not one."

Style girl, all the girl, all the was a drawer which she drew table was a drawer which she drew table.

"You're a very sweet little girl, all the same," said Mam'selle Diane, a smile breaking over her grave face. "Come in, I want to show you and your hight to many a" at a number of small yellow downy daught library and there on little scalloped flannel mats of various colors sat a number of small yellow downy daught library and the library and library and the library and library and the library and library an your bird to mama."

Lady Jane followed her guide across a small, spotless side gallery into a not able to find other words at the tiny room of immaculate cleanliness, moment to express her wonder and dewhere, sitting in an easy chair near a high bed, was an old, old lady, the oldest person Lady Jane had ever seen, with hair as white as snow, combed out. back from a delicate, shrunken face and covered with a little black silk and rapturously smoothed down its little wooly back with her soft fingers. and covered with a little disk single state of the cap.

"Mama, this is the little girl with the bird of whom I've been telling you," said Mam'selle Diane, leading her forward. "And, Lady Jane, this is my mother, Madame d'Hautreve."

The old lady shook hands with the child and patted her head caressingly; then she asked, in a weak, quavering the bird wasn't too heavy for some cap.

"What are they for?" asked Lady Jane in surprise; she could not think they were made for any purpose than yoice, if the bird wasn't too heavy for some cap.

voice, if the bird wasn't too heavy for for ornament. the little girl to carry.

"Oh, no, Madame," replied Lady Jane, brightly. "Tony's large, he grows very fast, but he isn't heavy, he's all feathers, he's very light; would you like to take him?"

"Oh, no, Madame," replied Lady Jane, brightly. "Tony's large, he grows very fast, but he isn't heavy, he's
all feathers, he's very light; would you
like to take him?"

"Yes, they were pen-wipers; MademoiselleDiane d'Hautreve, grand-daughter of the Count d'Hautre, made him?"

daughter of the Count d'Hautre, made little woolen ducklings for pen-wipers, "On, no, no, no, my deal of he, said the old lady, drawing back timidly, and sold them quite secretly to Madame Jourdian, on the Rue Royale, in order to have bread for her aged mother and it's a crane, isn't it?" "He's a blue heron, and he's not a common bird," replied Lady Jane, repeating her little formula, readily and politely. "I see that it's different from a crane," said Mam'selle Diane, looking at Tony critically, who, now that his mistress had put him down, stood on one leg very much humped up, and making, on the whole, rather an ungainly figure.

gainly figure.

"Tony always will do that before strangers," observed Lady Jane apologetically. "When I want him to walk about and show his feathers, he just draws himself up and stands on one leg."
"However, he is very pretty and very odd. Don't you think I might succeed in copying him?" And Mam'selle Diane turned an anxious glance on her mother. "I don't know, my dear," quavered the old lady, "his legs are so long that they would break easily if they were made of sealing-wax." "I think I could use a wire with the sealing-wax," said Mam'selle Diane, thoughtfully regarding Tony's leg. "You see there would be only one." "I know, my dear, but the wool; you've got no wool the color of his feathers."

"Madame Jourdain would send for

"But, Diane, think of the risk; if you shouldn't succeed, you'd waste the wool, and you do the ducks so well; really, my dear, I think you'd better be satisfied with the ducks and the canaries." "Mama, it would be something new, something original. I'm tired of ducks and canaries."

"Well, my dear, I shan't oppose you, if youthink you can succeed, but its great a risk to startout with an entirely new model, and you can't use the wool for the ducks if you should fail: you must think of that, my dear, whether you can afford to lose the wool, if you "Thou Shall Earn Thy Bread by the Sweat of Thy Brow."

While this conversation was going on between Mam'selle Diane and her mother, Lady Jane's bright eyes were taking in the contents of the little Selah in Morning Star. Labor is king. Labor is the builder room. It was very simply furnished, the floor was bare, and the walls were and mover of human works. Labor is foundation and the massive frame of the building, - Capital is the ornamental trimmings of consumated Capital is the resting bourne of an accomplished fact. It is the ultimate end; beyond, it is dissolution.

Labor is as everlasting as the world. As long as the sun shines and man lives, labor will be the beginning of all things human-their foundation.

When labor has reached the end of its aim, it finds itself the possessor o capital, the sole ultime thule of its efforts. It can go no further—it must The center of the small shelf was ornamented with a tree made of a stand still; and to stand still or inert, is the first step towards dissolution.

wire frame, and apparently hopping about among the foliage, on little seal-Man is a toiling progressive animal; he toils, he builds up and when he ing-wax bills, were a number of little wool birds of every color under the sun, has reached the summit of his pyramid, he lays still, rots and disappears.

Thus have families, peoples, communities kingdoms and empires risen; to build and flourish, and disappear.

It is useless to quote history. It stands vivid with the beginning, increase and end of all things human, puzzle an ornithologist. Lady Jane thought they were adornable, and her fingers almost ached to caress them. "Oh, how pretty they are!" she sighed, at length, quite overcome with and wherever you turn, labor has been the conqueror, and hence the survivor; for labor can alone rebuild and reacquire the capital that is lost. The tenure of capital is so ephem and they're ever so much prettier than Tony," she added glancing ruefully at eral that an instant will sweep it away ; while it took years to acquire it Labor is self-existing being the positive heir-loom of man from God -man's destiny on earth.

The contention of capital against Diane witnessed her delight with much labor can only be of short duration, for all things must return to the source from whence they came; and as labor made capital, therefore labor will always be the ultimate absorber. How can capital conquer labor, when it has to use labor to conquer it? And as all things of a same nature will amalgamate, hence, the very tools which capital has to use, will turn truth, they are sincere in their praise, and when they discover merit, they against it, and be utimately its most dangerous enemies.

United labor masters the world, and, like the chained lion, it never knows its strength until it has burst its fetters.

To coerce it is to strengthen it. To attack it is but to unite it.

All convulsions which have changed the nature and forms of nations have come from the upheavings of trampled abor. From a patient beast of burden when trodding its accustomed paths, it insatiable tiger when attacked in its lair.

Thackeray's Tribute.

It will interest the reader to know that Thackeray was in strong sympathy with the Catholic Church. His osom friend, William B. Read, Philadelphia, in a valuable little book published anonymously and now very scarce, bears witness to the fact; and I quote his words all the more willingly, for the reason that when this essay of Mr. Read's was published in a series printed in New York the interesting passage was omitted. Bigotry dies hard.

"Thackeray," says his friend, "was in one sense—not a technical one—a religious, or, rather, a devout man, and I have sometimes fancied (start not, Protestant reader!) that he had a sentiment leaning to the Church of Christian antiquity. Certain it is he never sneered at it or disparaged it. 'After all," said he one night to him who writes these notes, driving through the streets of an American city, and passing a Roman Catholic cathedrai, "that is the only thing that can be alled a church.

We will think none the less kindly of Thackeray for this good word .-Brother Azarias.

In all imitations of the Myrtle Navy to-bacco yet attempted, either inferior stock has been used or the plug has been made a trifle lighter in weight. The latter defect is apt to escape the attention of the consumer until he finds that he is smoking a greater number of plugs than before. The Myrtle Navy is made three plugs to the pound and each plug is carefully weighed. Why the Archbishop Should be Present.

Aching Pains Removed. Aching Pains Removed.

GENTLEMEN,—I cannot but praise B. B.

B. for it has revived me wonderfully. I was completely run down, had aching pains in my shoulders, a tired feeling in my limbs, low spirits; in fact, I was in misery. Being recommended to try B. B. B. I did so, and with the use of only one bottle I am to-day strong and healthy. I prize it highly.

MRS. B. TUCKER, Teronto, Ont. State Commission, says: "The fact that the New World was discovered

Mrs. B. Tucker, Teronto, Ont.

No article takes hold of Blood Diseases like Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery. It works like magic. Miss C., Toronto, writes: I have to thank you for what Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery has done for me. I had a sore on my knee as large as the palm of my hand, and could get nothing to do any good until I used the Discovery. Four bottles completely cured it." esting fact that the identical land of the New World on which Columbus

Minard's Liniment cures Garget in Cows.

Remedies, consisting of Cuci-cura, the great skin cure, Curi-cura Soar, an exquisite skin purifier and beautifier, and Curi-cura Resolvert, greatest of humor remedies, when the best physicians fail. Curi-cura Resu-sciant of the cure every humor, cruption, and disease from pimples to serofula. Sold every-where. Potter Drudo and Chem. Corn., Boston. Ker-"How to Cure Skin Diseases" mailed free. PIMPLES, blackheads, red, rough, and oily skin prevented and cured by Cuticura Soap.

While the best for all household uses, has peculiar qualities for easy and quick washing of clothes. READ the directions on the wrapper. St. Croix Soap M'rg. Co., St. Stephen, N. B.

Never be without a Convenient in domestic cooking. Indispensable in times of sickness.

Easily prepared, Readily digested, Very strength-giving.

Many Old Balling States on much tertilizing Won't Produce a Profit. Worn-Out Balling States on the rien loany soil of Slichtzan Parms produce a fine cross subset this expense. The neur markets before a fine cross subset this expense. of climate and freedom roll cyclodes, observed with tell you how to get the best firms on long time; low rate of interest.

O. M. BARNES, Land Commissioner, Lausing, Mich.

> ASK YOUR CROCER FOR The Celebrated

Annual Sales Exceed 33 MILLION Lbs. For Samples sent Free write to C. ALFRED CHOUILLOU, MONTREAL.

HEALTH FOR ALL.

THE PILLS

THE PILLS

Parify the Ricod, correct all Disorders of the LIVER, STOMACH, KIDNEYS AND BOWELS.

They invigorate and restore to beaith Deblitated Constitutions, and are invaluable in all complaints incidental to Females of all ages. Ever Children and the aged they are priceies. THE OINTMENT

Is an infallible remedy for Rad Lags. Rad Pressian, Old Wounds, Sores and Uters. It is followed for Gout and Rheumatism. For disorders of the Chest it has no equal. FOR SORE THROATS, RRONCHITIS, COUGHS, Colds, Glandular Swellings and all Skin Diseases it has no rival; and for contracte and stiff joints it acts like a charm.

Manufactured only at Professor HOLLOWAY'S Establishment.

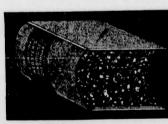

78 NEW OXFORD ST. (LATE 538 OXFORD ST.), LONDONAnd are sold at is. id., 2s. ad., 4s. 6d., lis., 22s. and 33s. each Eox or Pot, and may be had of all Medicine Vendor, throughout the world.

The Purchasers should look to the Label on the Pots and Boxes. If the address a not Oxford Street, London, they are sparrous.

CAUTION. THE HURON AND ERIE

IN BRONZE LETTERS.

NONE OTHER GENUINE

The CATHOLIC RECORD FOR ONE YEAR

-AND-Webster's - Dictionary FOR $4.00.

By special arrangement with the publishers, we are able to obtain a number of the above books, and propose to furnish a copy to each of our subscribers.

The dictionary is a necessity in every home, school and basiness house. It fills a vacancy, and furnishes knowledge which no one hundred other volumes of the choicest books could supply. Young and Old, Educated and Ignorant, Rich and Poor, should have it within reach, and refer to its contents every day in the year.

As some have asked if this is really the Original Webster's Unabridged Dictionary, we are able to state that we have learned direct from the publishers the fact that his is the very work complete, on which about 40 of the best years of the author's life were so well employed in writing. It contains the entire vocabulary of about 100,000 words, including the correct spelling, derivation and definition of same, and is the regular standard size, containing about 300,000 square inches of printed surface, and is bound in cloth.

A whole library in itself. The regular sell-inches of printed surface, and is bound in cloth.

A whole library in itself. The regular selling price of Webster's Dictionary has here tofore been $12.00.

N. B.—Dictionaries will be delivered free of cost in the Express Office in London. All orders must be accompanied with the cash. If the book is not entirely satisfactory to the purchaser it may be returned at our expense, if the distance is not more than 200 miles from London.

I am well pleased with Webster's Unabriaged Dictionary. I find it a most valuable work.

Address, THE CATHOLIC RECORD, LONDON, ONT.

State of printed surface, and is bound in cloth.

Catholic Publishers, Church Ornaments and Religious Articles.

Chast.m. Ont., Do. R. WOODRUFF, No. 185 QUEEN'S AVE. Do. Catholic Publishers of Companies and Companies of Chast.m. Ont., and and companies of Chast.m. Ont., and companies of Chas

Loan & Savings Company

ESTABLISHED 1864. Subscribed Capital, - $2,500,000 Paid up Capital, - - 1,300,000 Reserve Fund, - - - 602,000
J. W. LITTLE, - President
JOHN BEATTIE, - Vice-President

DEPOSITS of $1 and upwards received at highest current rates.

DEBENTURES issued, payable in Canada or in Engiand. Executors and trustees are authorized by law to invest in the debentures of this company.

MONEY LOANED on mortgages of real contents.

MORIGAGES purchased.
G. A. SOMERVILLE,

London, Ont. Books We Ought to Read

The Incarnate Word and the Devotion to the Sacred Heart. By Rev. 6. Tickell, S. J., 16mo, cloth.

Ancient and Modern History. This volume is copionsly illustrated with colored maps and fine copper plate engravings, 12mo. cloth. fine copper plate engravings, 12mo, cloth, Bistory of England To The Present Time. By a Catholic Teacher. 12mo, cloth, 75 cents.
History of The Middle Ages. By Rev. P. F.
Gazenu, S. J., 12mo, cloth, 90 cents.
Bible History of The Old and New Testament,
By Dr. J. Schuster. Revised by Mrs. Jas.
Sadlier. Fully illustrated, with fine engravings. 12mo, board sides, 50 cents.
Ipse. Ipsa, Ipsum. A collection of controversial letters in answer to the above question, and a vindication of the position assigned by the Catholic Church to the Ever Blessed Virgin of the World's Redeemer, in the Divine economy of man's salvation. By, R. F.
Quigley, L. L. B., 800, cloth, net, $2.00.
The Letters and Correspondence of John Henry Newman, With a brief Auto blography,
Edited at Cardinal Newman's request, 2 vols., 12mo, cloth.
The Works of R. W. Emerson: Nature, Ad-Edited at Cardinal Newman's request, 2 vois., 12mo, cloth, R. W. Emerson: Nature, Addresses and Lectures, 800, cloth, Phases of Thought and Criticism; Principally a portrayal of the characters of Newman and Emerson. By Brother Azarias, 12mo, cloth, 81,50, Emerson. By Brother Azarias, 12mo, cloth.

Development of Old English Thought. This wolume traces the development of old English thought as expressed in old English thought as expressed in old English litterature. By Bro. Azarius, 12mo, cloth, 125.
Books and Reading This volume serves as a criterion on what and how to read By Brother Azarias, 12mo, cloth.

90 cents.
Oratory and Orators. The power and influence of the orator. Orator's helps, etc. By Wm.
Mathews, Lt. D. (2mo.

200 Dictionary of Quotations from the Poets, with dates of birth and death. By Miss A. L.
Ward. 12mo, cloth.

Earniliar Quotations. Being an altempt to trace to their sources, passages and phrases in common use. By John Bartlett. 12mo, cloth.

181.50

Life and Poems of John Boyle O'Reilly. By Jas. J. Roche and Mrs. John B. O'Reilly. 80, Canadian Pen and Ink Sketches, containing a highly interesting description of Montreal and its environs. By John Fraser. 80, ckt 50

h good 7 are reliable stances. BROS., . 733-8w

um. For GE, cal and

ing. esident. y matric-rtificates, Board and ders, $75; lars apply resident.

LLEGE, Brothers.
expense,
its. The equipment nishing of to be derement of ommercial rsity'. c., per an-s, $160 per culars on TTERY.

RONS.

siness Colrace Arch-irkpatrick, o, and Sir ng people, these dis-ide which or circular. SON, ollege,

LLEGE IESS EGE

year. eeping sold.

Business

flege sit a'l other Busi-oleges and Com-sit the Northern oroughly II we te, practical and premises and the le furniture and FUEE. For An-ars, free, addres

LTH.

OOD) MRS nues of the pr, carrying and the systoul humors time Cor-Stomach, dyspepsia, eartburn, the Skin, on, Jaun-elas, Scro-eart, Ner-ebility; all Complaints

BURDOCK ra Poronta AHAN ellington. gous, Japans, r and English

anbourne and nd Figs. ls in London S. RANAHAT

Propriete"