CAP. XIV.

An Act to amend the Interim Parliamentary Elections Act, 1871.

[Assented to 14th June, 1872.]

IN amendment of "The Interim Parliamentary Elections Act, 1871," Her Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

PROVINCE OF ONTARIO.

1. The second and fourth sub-sections of the second section of the Act cited in the preamble are hereby repealed.

2. In the Province of Ontario, subject to the special provisions hereinafter made, the qualification of voters at elections for members of the House of Commons shall be that established by the laws in force in that Province on the twenty-third day of January, 1869, as the qualification of voters at elections for members of the Legislative Assembly, and the voters' lists to be used at elections of members of the House of Commons shall be the same as if such elections were of members of the Legislative Assembly on the basis of the qualification aforesaid, and the polling sub-divisions or wards shall be the same as if such elections were for members of the Legislative Assembly; and the returning officer shall provide a polling place for each such sub-division or ward in the most central and convenient place for such elections.

3. The oath or affirmation to be required of voters in the said Province, shall be that prescribed by the fifty-fourth section of chapter six, of the Consolidated Statutes of Canada, and no other, except only in the Electoral Districts of Algoma and Muskoka, as hereinafter provided.

4. In the Electoral Districts of Algoma and Muskoka, and in the new townships added during the present session of this Parliament to the South Riding of the County of Renfrew, the persons entitled to vote at elections for members of the House of Commons shall be male persons, of the full age of twenty-one years, subjects of Qualification of voters.
