What Cristal Has to Say of Kelly Harris

When the Herald got into communication with Manager Cristall, of the Hams, at the Grand Central hotel in St. Thomas yesterday morning and informed him why Kelly Harris had not accompanied the squad to the Railroad City, the pilot was not at all surprised. He felt that Harris

He is a sterling mechanical ball player, a hard hitter and a speedy baserunner, but lacking in baseball Philadelphia ... 27 brains. Many a time has he messed up plays by his failure to catch a signal, and in this way he has offset his hitting ability to such a degree that he is no great value to a club. If he combined baseball brains with his hitting and speed he wouldn't be in the Canadian league ten minutes But it's just this lack of "head" that keeps him where he is, and where ne will probably remain.

"Only those on the inside have any idea of how hard Harris was to handle. He sulked if everything wasn't to quit, and, on the contrary, it was quite expected. We do not consider that we have suffered any great loss, for I have lines out for two outfield-(Ottawa Free Press)

COURIER CUP GAME HAS BEEN POSTPONEL

S. O. E. Entered Protest Against Thistles, But Lost It.

It was decided at the Brantford and Paris Football meeting last evening to postpone the game for the Courier Cup until July 17th. Ordinary league games will be play instead.

The Sons of England entered a protest against the Thisties in the semifinals of the John Hill Charity Cup. but as there was only the referee's word, they lost the protest. Some new players sent in their 476 entrance forms and are now eligible 453 to play. These are G. Alexander, who will play for P.S.A.; Charlton will play for S.O.E. and H. Adams for Holmedale,

RICHMOND FANS FAIL

TO SUPPORT THE TEAM Richmond, Va., July 8.—Unless there is a rapid and marked improvement in the attendance at International League games in this city, the 425 team will be transferred elsewhere. When this city was in the Virginia State League the fans shouted loud and long for faster ball. Now that they have it they don't appear to know what to do with it.

The advisability of dropping both Richmond and Newark and making a six-club circuit was discussed at the recent meeting in New York, when Newark's team was shifted to Harrisburg. The Virginians have played good ball, and are very much in the running, so that the meagre attendance cannot be blamed on the poor ount Haldane regarding the latter's showing of the team.
