COUNTY NEWS.

Budget of News and Gossip.—Pers Intelligence,—A Little of Every-thing well Mixed up.

ELLISVILLE. SATURDY Aug. 2nd .- The farmers SATURDY Aug. 2nd.—The farmers in this vicinity are pretty much all through haying. Considerable fall wheat has been harvosted this week and spring grain looks as if it would be ready for next week. The raspberries are about done and now for the long-blacks.

Mr. I Sagaray and Miss Sayara and Miss Saya

Mr. J. Savery and Miss Savery, of Hamilton, are spending the summer with friends here. The services on Sunday morning and Thursday evening were well at-tended and the sermons were excellent. A number of people from this vi-cinity took a trip through the Thous-and Islands yesterday. They report having spent a very pleasant time.

ELBE MILLS. Monday, Aug. 4.—Some of our citizens are still suffering from the effects of La Grippe.

Mr. Frank Cornell called on his friends here yesterday.

There are large quantities of hay yet to be cut in this vicinity.

Some spring grain is nearly ready

Haying is almost finished in this section and it is more than an average crop.

Mr. Charles Lewis and family are visiting their friends in this section. Mr. Thomas Brown, of Mt. Royal is the next happy man. It's a girl.

Mrs. A. Mathews, who has been in disponed for some time, is, we are glad to hear, improving.

A couple of our local sports took it into their extensive craniums to have a little deversion, having been working very hard for a few days, so Bronec and Daisy were hitched to their best carriage and they hied themselves to one of our border towns where they secured sufficient refreshments for a journey. They then started for the county seat of learning, and when almost at their destination, Broneo be teame fatigued. It was suggested that a small artery be tapped to assist Nature to resume the performance of her wonted functions. This was done and it was then found impossible to took thinks he could have saved him alright.

Mrs. Rev. John Burton, of Toronto s spending a few days with her sister Irs. Steed.

Haying is about finished and everybody is wishing for rain, except the man who is afraid it might rot the potatoes.

For of these tired men no two Would occupy a bed.

The puzzled host was soon at ease—the was a clever man, And so to please his guests devised This most ingenious plan:

NEWBORO.

In room marked A two men were placed.
The third was lodged in B,
The fourth to C was then assigned,
The fifth retired to D. Tuesday, July 29.—Mr. Ollie McNally, of Rochester, N.Y., is home In E the sixth he tucked away, visiting his friends.

Rev. Mr. Weeks and G. W. Baker, of Brockville, and their families are rusticating on Newboro lake.
