The annual excursion of the Elgin Methodist Sunday School took place on Thursday last and over 600 persons passed over the B. & W. to Alex. Bay and Ogdensburg. The majority went up the river and as the day was cloudy and cool the trip was a very enjoyable one.

Parish's Plaining Mill and door and sash factory is running every day this summer having work for a full gang of hands. The feed warehouse has proved a great convenience to people in Athens and the surrounding country and a very large amount of provender is ground weekly.

Rev. J. W. Forster, Lyndhurst was a caller at the Reporter on Friday last. He is arranging for the big picnic to be held at Seeley's Bay on Aug. 14th in connection with the anniversary of the opening of St. Peter's Church at that place. He was also making arrangements for a picnic of the Union Sabbath Schools at Lyndhurst to Lahe-o-tah Bay at Charleston in the near future.

Hay a Good Price.
Hay may not become so cheap as some imagine on account of the great quantity there is in the country. The demand for horses in South Africa is keeping up and following it is the demand for hay to feed those horses. Over 50,000 tons of Canadian hay has already been consumed in South Africa and there has come an order for 10,000 tons to be shipped during August. It is therefore likely that farmers may realize more out of their hay crop than they were counting on. We hope it will be so.

Pretty Close.
Between Athens and Brockville there is a very striking indication of the electrical power of the late storm. The lightning struck the telegraph wire and passed along a distance of nearly one mile. The poles for the whole distance are splintered and split, some down into the ground, and others were forced entirely from the wire. The post at one end gives ample evidence that the lightning made a garrison finish as it was particularly badly shattered. Some of the houses in the vicinity are located within a very few feet of the wire but they remained untouched. It was, no doubt, as close as the inhabitants wished it.

25,000 men are wanted in Manitoba and the Northwest to help with the harvest.

At Brockville cheese board last week a total of 4,363 boxes of cheese were registered, 2,243 boxes of white and 2,119 of colored. Cable quotations showed colored to be leading by 1¢. The highest bid was 9½¢, nearly all the registrations being chalked off at this figure.

Antoine Wendling's fast pacing stallion, De Veras, which is in training on the Empire City track at Yonkers, N. Y., was called on last week for a first trial heat which he stepped in a 2:12½, doing the last half in 1:04, or a 2:08 clip. De Veras will not start in the grand circuit races until after August 1.

In speaking of a revival meeting held in Munster recently, the C. P. Central Canadian says: "Honorism seems to have pretty well run its course. Its churches at Athens Winchester and Lanark are said to be closed." This is a mistake. The church at Athens is still open and shows no indication of closing.

Our thanks are due to those of our subscribers who have during the past few weeks responded to our request for settlement of accounts due for subscription. There are however a large number who have neglected to favor us after repeated requests, both through the paper and by letter. We have exercised a lot of patience with some of our subscribers and allowed their account to run on from year to year hoping that they would pay up without putting both parties to the trouble and expense of settling through the courts. This means will be adopted in the near future with several delinquents if we do not hear from them.

A Change in the Staff.
On Friday last Geo. F. Donnelly, who for the past sixteen years has been foreman and local editor of the Reporter, resigned his position and left for Rochester, N. Y. His place on the Reporter has been filled by the engagement of W. Guy Pickell, for several years proprietor of the Sturgeon Falls Advertiser, and lately on the staff of the Markdale Standard. Mr. Pickell comes to Athens with good testimonials as to business ability and we trust that he will receive the same courtesy and consideration as was extended to his predecessor. He is a perfect stranger to this part of Canada and it will take him a few weeks to get acquainted with the people and get into the ways of the Reporter in matters of business. In the near future we contemplate several material changes and improvements in the Reporter and trust that our readers will bear with any shortcomings in the way of news and general make-up for a few weeks. This is our busy season, having a number of voters lists and prize lists to get out at once and we may not be able to devote as much time and attention to the Reporter until these are off as we would like, but we will do our best to keep up the reputation of the Reporter for giving the latest and best news of the district.

Mr. Clare Fritchard, ex-student of the A. H. S., was in town on Sunday last.

The streets on Saturday evening presented an unusually busy appearance and business among the merchants was particularly good.

Recorder (Thursday): Mr. Walter Lewis, wife and family of Troy, N. Y. are in town today and will visit Mr. W. A. Lewis at Athens.

Miss S. E. Byers left Athens this morning (Wednesday) on a visit to Rochester, N. Y. Her shop will be closed during her absence.

Mr. Samuel Boddy has lately added a two story porch to his house on Elgin street which adds very much to the comfort of the family as well as being an ornament to the house and street.

In the Kemprville burying ground five clergymen of the Church of England are buried side by side. This is a peculiar circumstance and one probably not equaled by any other cemetery in Canada.

Mrs. Ohas. H. Smith died this morning (Wednesday) at her mother's residence, Elgin St., after a long illness from that dreaded disease, consumption. The funeral takes place at 2 p. m. on Friday Aug. 2nd at the Methodist church.

Messrs. C. E. Pickrell & Sons have a sample steel waggop wheel at their shop on Elgin street that is receiving many favorable comments from the farmers. It seems to be very strong and convenient and will find a ready sale.

Where has all the enthusiasm of the free library promoters gone? We understood that the council at its last meeting was to take it over from the old Mechanics' Institute board and make it a public library, but no action seems to have been taken. Interested readers would like to see it open for the long winter evenings.

Harlem True Blue Lodge, No. 3, Protestant Association of Prentice Boys purpose holding a grand picnic and demonstration in Smith's grove, Harlem, on Saturday Aug. 10th. The case against the captain and the owner of the steamer Athala at Brockville has been settled out of court, the defendants signifying their intention of ceasing to call there on Sundays. They pay the costs. This course was followed by the boat people on the advice of their solicitors, Hutcheson & Fisher, who were of the opinion that the only ground advisable to contest the action was that the constitutionality of the 'Lord's Day Observance Act,' which is now before the court of appeals.
