

THE ACADIAN.

WOLFVILLE, N.S., APRIL 7, 1916.

Editorial Brevities.

A sugar refinery costing two and a half million dollars is to be erected at Charlottetown, Boston, by the United Fruit Company, replacing an antiquated refinery now in use.

In Berlin the public school children were given a grand holiday because Germany had raised another war loan by issuing fat money, that is money without any gold basis for international exchange.

"Conservation," the origin of the Commission of Conservation for Canada, calls for a general clean up in its last issue. We quote:

"It is not too early for the health departments of our municipalities to prepare for their spring clean-up day. The snow will soon be gone, exposing to view the accumulated refuse of the winter months. In Canada we are favored with a covering mantle of snow during several months, and as a consequence are inclined to be somewhat careless of sanitary conditions.

The coming of warmer weather, this neglect becomes a source of great danger, and unless prompt action is taken, may give rise to serious epidemics.

Municipal Councils and Boards of Health should initiate without delay plans for a general spring clean up.

Generous appropriations should be made for the purpose and a thorough organization developed for the removal of refuse.

The local pride of the people should be appealed to on behalf of a clean home—an appeal rarely made in vain.

In many of our towns and cities there are organizations interested in public questions, only requiring initiative to secure effective action.

The beautifying of their home towns should be made an incentive for energetic effort, thus increasing their interest and enthusiasm for the place called home."

Keep Children Well.

To keep little ones well the bowels must be kept regular and the stomach sweet. Nine tenths of childhood ailments are caused by derangements of these organs. Baby's Own Tablets never fail to regulate the stomach and bowels—that is why thousands of mothers would give no other medicine to their little ones.

Daylight Saving Scheme in Winnipeg.

On the fourth Sunday in April the daylight saving scheme will go into effect in Winnipeg, as the by-law was passed through all its readings at the last meeting of the City Council.

Ploughing Starts in Alberta

According to a telegram received in Montreal from Vice President Bury, of the Canadian Pacific, who is in West, ploughing started on the south end of MacLeod subdivision and on the Crow's Nest subdivision last week end and should be general this week.

"The German War Woman," an intensely interesting article by Eva Madden, is the first item in the April number of THE CANADIAN MAGAZINE. It is followed by a fine north country story by Judith Kingdom, at historical article suggested by the Parliament Buildings at Ottawa, by H. O. Hammond; "Prehistoric Remains in Canada," by Day Allen Wiley; "Richard Hakluyt: The Spirit of Our Race," by W. P. H. Kennedy; "A Woman's Heart," a short play, by Arthur L. Phelps; "Historic Cap Rouge," by Q. Fairchild; a sketch of Mrs. Lady Fitzgibbon, by Ethel Cody Stoddard, besides several good short stories. The illustrations are even better than usual.

OLDER BUT STRONGER

To be healthy at seventy, prepare at forty, is sound advice, because in the strength of middle life we too often forget that neglected colds, or careless treatment of slight aches and pains, simply undermine strength and bring chronic weakness for later years.

To be stronger when older, keep your blood pure and rich and active with the strength-building and blood-nourishing properties of Scott's Emulsion which is a food, a tonic and a stimulant to keep your blood rich, alleviate rheumatism and avoid sickness. At any drug store.

Another Letter from Pte. Paul Davidson.

East Sndling, Kent, Eng. Thurs., March, 17th, 1916

DEAR FOLKS—This has been another nice day, only a light summer rain is falling now. This morning it was exceptionally fine and I had a signal station on top of a mound which runs past one side of the camp (a railway tunnel is underneath). On either side were nice green fields filled with such animals as sheep and guinea fowls. Was nice and comfortable in one's shirt sleeves and no cap, and I am afraid I put in rather a profitless morning lying on my back watching the clouds go over and listening to the birds and guinea fowls. This afternoon was on the same station only had something new to keep my mind from my work. There was evidently something of extraordinary interest on out on the Channel off Hythe. The first thing that caught my attention was a couple of destroyers, which generally lay off there, moving in under the shore. It wasn't long before the two dirigibles, which are generally patrolling off the coast here, coming up a fast speed and circling down over the destroyers and shortly after an aeroplane suddenly dropped from somewhere and circled over the top of them all. I was trying to read a message from the lamp at the time, and as you can imagine, there were a few words that I lost. After about half an hour's time the destroyers moved out to their regular patrol, the aeroplane vanished almost as quickly as it had arrived, one dirigible struck out across the Channel and the other sailed up towards Folkestone. Just what all the excitement was about I do not know. Is it necessary for me to say that I did not acquire so very much knowledge of the art of signalling, to day.

Have been getting along very well of late and things look rather encouraging. We had a test on Tuesday and I read 6 words (per minute) in the buzzer, 10 on signature flags, 6 on Morse flags and 4 in lamp. The requirements of a certified signaller are respectively 8 to 8 and 6 words per minute, so you see I am getting thither after a fashion. It is just a matter of practising every chance one gets. When we get so that we can read properly we will be sent to the school at Shoreham to get a course in wire laying, instrument repairing, and map reading.

Just got into conversation with a fellow across the table who I thought looked familiar and it turned out to be Rennie, at one time of A. C. A. He is with the 6th draft from Halifax I think. He says that Rimmer Kenney is also in this camp. By some good fortune we did not have to drill last Sunday so I went to Sandgate and saw Paul Tingley. He had just lately purchased an article, very little known in this country, namely, a base-ball, so we indulged in a few catches out in front of his ward. About 4 o'clock went to see Mr. and Mrs. Bidd. Had supper and spent the evening, having a very fine time. Monday night I went to Hythe to Mrs. Henshaw's and had another swell feed. On my arrival there I found E. den ahead of me (he had just been dismissed from hospital up north) and during the evening who should come in but Vaughn and Paul Tingley. Vaughn had just been dismissed from his hospital and sent to the Shoreham hospital to recuperate and had been placed in Paul's ward. We left there about 9.30 in a very cheerful frame of mind. I have certainly enjoyed the evenings I have spent there during the last week or so. It has made a nice change for me and broken up the monotony of camp life, not to mention the good things my stomach is filled with, things we talk about around the camp in awed whispers. Vaughn showed us where he had been wounded and he certainly had a close call. He has seven scars in all, the largest one in his stomach, resembling a large tear about the size of one's hand.

Tuesday I went to St. Martin's Plains and saw Don Chase; he left the next morning in a draft. It makes me sore to see those fellows who enlisted after I did getting "across" first. I would give a lot if I hadn't joined the signal section, but it can't be helped now as they will not allow us to leave it. The only thing for us to do is to work hard and qualify and then we will get there soon enough. The only consolation we have is that these fellows will have to train in France while before they can go to the trenches, while when we once qualify over here and get our papers and two crossed flags sewed on our arm we are prepared for anything.

Last night I went in to Mrs. Henshaw's again and had another feed even better than the last. Elden, Paul Tingley and Vaughn were also there. Burton DeWolfe was expected but did not arrive. During the evening Mrs. Blott, a friend of Mrs. Henshaw's, and the manager of the Imperial Hotel, one of the largest summer hotels on the south coast, came in and invited us all to the hotel for dinner to-morrow night. I certainly have been in luck for the last few weeks. Mrs. H. is leaving Saturday for New York via Jamaica. Vaughn is getting a two months' sick leave and will leave for Canada at the same time. I got some Canadian mail today for the first time in about three weeks. I understand it has all been quarantined somewhere. The fellow at home are certainly turning out in great shape now. Tell them to hurry or they'll be too late to see the fun. The war news has certainly been very encouraging of late, has it not. The French appear to be more than holding their own at Verdun.

A Raemaekers Poster.

FAMOUS DUTCH ARTIST'S REMORSELESS EXPRESSION OF GERMAN INHUMANITY IN BELGIUM

Louis Raemaekers, the famous Dutch Cartoonist, has generously drawn for the National Committee for Relief in Belgium one of the most remarkable and certainly the most heartrending of all the "War Posters." The misery of the millions now in Belgium whom the Germans refuse to feed is the subject of this notable artist's latest effort. A Belgian woman, with a ragged red cloak over her shoulders, is holding tightly to her breast an infant in a shawl. Around the child is clasped the mother's hand—a hand which spells devastation. In the woman's face there is infinite sorrow of motherhood, driven to despair by the German inhumanity, and the pitiful, helpless yearning to relieve the child's suffering.

But it is in the face of the child the horror of the tragedy of Belgium. The staring terror in the eyes that look up at the mother makes one shudder and turn away to think what might have been in England. With remorseless realism Raemaekers, in this infant of pain, has visualized to the world the infamy of Germany.

The poster, which is artistically reproduced, has this laconic heading: "In Belgium." Underneath appears the one word "Help." Any reader of this newspaper can secure a copy of the poster free of cost by sending a postcard to the Hon. Secretary, National Committee for Relief in Belgium, Trafalgar Buildings, Trafalgar Square, London.

PAINS AFTER EATING

WIND IN THE STOMACH—ACIDITY, HEADACHES—CONSTIPATION

ARE SIGNS OF INDIGESTION.

Indigestion—the complete or partial failure of the digestive processes—frequently throws out of gear the whole machinery of the body. You can't enjoy the vigor and vitality of good health unless your stomach, liver and bowels do their work regularly and efficiently.

MOTHER SEIGEL'S SYRUP

As a digestive tonic and stomachic remedy, Mother Seigel's Syrup is esteemed in tens of thousands of homes, wherever the English language is spoken. If you suffer much or little from disorders of the stomach, liver or bowels, try the effect of taking 15 to 20 drops of this famous remedy in water, after meals, for a few days and note its beneficial effects.

ASSISTS DIGESTION

The new bottle contains three times as much as the old one and is of a different color.

MILK & CREAM. TO THE CONSUMER.—Have you ever taken the precaution to look into the conditions under which your milk and cream are produced? Does your milkman provide the 800 cubic feet air space and 6 square feet of glass per cow, considered essential by the best authorities? MILK produced in dark, badly ventilated stables is unsafe food, especially for young children. Do you get milk from cows that shed the winter's accumulation of dirt and dead skin with their coat of old hair in the Spring, or are they regularly carded and brushed and the hair clipped about on the flanks and udder? I am regularly in the milk business, and in a position to apply you with CLEAN milk the YEAR ROUND, from cows stabled, fed, and tended in the most up-to-date manner. You are cordially invited to visit my barn and see for yourself. It costs more to produce milk under ideal conditions, but my prices are no higher in spite of this greater first cost. Visit the premises of your present milkman, and if you are not satisfied with his stables and surroundings, write or phone me. On and after April 1st, I will DELIVER milk and cream at the following prices, viz:— MILK per quart (in bottles) at .07 cts. MILK per pint (in bottles) at .04 " MILK per quart (in cans) at .06 1/2 " CREAM per " (in bottles) at .08 " CREAM per pint (in bottles) at .15 " Customers wishing milk in cans, will be required to supply cans at their own expense and wash and sterilize same themselves. I will attach metal name-plate to cans free of charge. Yours truly, J. D. Sherwood. Wolfville, March 24th, 1916
