SATURDAY, JANUARY 8, 1887.

MARYSVILLE INCORPORATED.

On Monday the initial stop will be taken in the incorportion of the town of the dominion have made more graphing one of the dominion have made more graph province is perfect; and it is well wought to the line perfect; confidence and effty years. We congratulate our neighbors upon the new and important step which they have taken. In population they are sufficiently numerous for a town and the growing necessities of the place will make some kind of local government necessary. They are a very corderly local ty there needs to be some sort of organization. One remarkable feature of the case is that although nearly the whole town belongs to one man, the humblest ratepayer in his employ has an equal voice with him in the man agenement of the town offinian. It is an instance of democracy in its broadest form. We anticipates something in the nature of a model town. The powers of the contract in the management of the town offiniant. It is an instance of democracy in the semination of the province is perfect and its support to the place will make some kind of local government necessary. They are a very corderly lot of people, but even in the most orderly locality there needs to be some sort of organization. One remarkable feature of the case is that although in the place will make some kind the local province in the province in the province in the province tion are of course as extensive as those of any similar body, but we do not suppose they will be exercised to any very great extent. The trouble with most towns is that they are too much governed. Councils often seem to think that they must use all the powers delegated to them, when, as a matter of fact, one half their authority would be the better for not being employed at all. Mr. Gibson is certainly to be congratulated upon the success which has crowned his career at Maryaville. As we point out elsewhere his predecessors with equal advantage in financial backing and trade connections of Fance speaks in very high terms down the success when has the success when has connections financial backing and trade connections of Fance speaks in very high terms down the following the financial backing and trade connections of the financial backing and trade to the financial backing and trade to an extension and trade to a commission in the French Army to a co ough success of that branch of this business. His record is a wonderful one. Probably he has himself personally transacted more business than any other man in Canada. He knows all about and manages all his own affairs. Not the least commendable thing about him is the example he sets to those around. Possessed of abundant means he gives no thought to rest, but employs his energy and his wealth in benefiting the community. Shrewd and clear headed he does not speculate, but engages in labor employing industries. If he makes large sums it is becausehe pays out large sums for material and wages. In his life he is simple and straightforward—in every sense of the word a good citzen and a good neighbor. We wish success to the town of Marysville, and long life and added prosperity to its founder.

The year 1887 has in store for astronomers a total eclipse of the sun, which can be observed from convenient stations in Europe. This eclipse occurs on the 19th of August and the line of totality passes through Berlin, and a little to the north of Moscow. The event will give astronomers an excellent opportunity to pursue their studies of the sun's surroundings. Our government ought to make immediate preparations to send a large and well equipped party to observe this clipse. We believe excellent results might be obtained in determining the extent of the sun's surroundings by the use of rapid photograph lenses of wide angle, in ordinary cameras. A lens of rapid photograph lenses of wide angle, in ordinary cameras. A lens of rapid photograph lenses of wide angle, in ordinary cameras. A lens of rapid photograph lenses of wide and field of the heavens, and with very rapid plates, the faint illumination about the sun might be photographed.

The Cautious Witness.

A witness was summoned before the astronomers and to alternations.

We speak 'particularly now from a New Brunswick standpoint, although what we say must be true of parts of all the other provinces. But this makes no difference to the party now in power. With them the convenience of the people counts for nothing. All the government thinks about is to fix on a date which will be the most likely to be favorable to their own interests. We admit that the house of commons ought to be dissolved before another session in a strictly conbefore another session in a strictly con-stitutional sense, but we claim that it stitutional sense, but we claim that it should have been dissolved long ago. APPER Ing, 45 to be ready. The date named be correct our friends have only a very short time in which to get ready. True they have as much time as their opponents have and are quite as ready. We do not complain of the shortness of the notice likely to be given. The government has a legitimate right to keep its own council upon such matters, and to bring on an election, when one ought to be held, on the very shortest notice the law will allow. Our sole complain is against an election in midwinter, when one could have been held just as well as not in the autumn. The action of the government in bringing on the election at this date, if they do so, can only be interpreted as a confession of weakness.

Last January I was attacked with a severe Cold, which, by neglect and frequent exposures, became worse, finally settling on my lungs. A terrible cough soon followed, accompanied by pains in the chest, from which I suffered intensely. After trying various remedies, without bottaining relief, I commenced taking Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, and was Speedily Cured.
