London, Aug. 26.—At a conference of Irish members of Parliament held last night, a programme was prepared for the convention of the Irish National League of Great Britain announced to be held at Leeda on Sept. 27. The programme demands selfgovernment for Ireland, and a direct representation of the Irish laboring class in Parliament.

PARIS, Aug. 26.—The Temps says reinforcements have been ordered to replace the troops required to hold the forts at Hue. A regiment of infantry and a battery of artillery will shortly embark at Toulon for Annam. As an effective blockade of the whole coast of Tonquin and the southern part of Annam is impossible with forces at disposal, Admiral Corbett will confine himself to blockading Tourane, Hue, the Delta of the Red River, and Hako.
