

Valedictory

Good Bye, Old Earth!
I'm feeling rather sick of your sham.
Your bloody wars your your heartless trick Of so gar-coating all your mean deceit
By empty phrases and cheap rhetoric.

Stuffed Up

Condition of many sufferers especially in the morning is experienced in clearness and throat.

The Sentinal Pine

Concluded.

The meaning of it came to Copeland with a shock. The man had been murdered. Swiftly his mind reconstructed the probable scene; the man had had a partner;

And then a new thought came to him. The knife dropped from his fingers as the horror of this thought filled him. For he saw himself as the interloper—saw himself as, with fierce resentment

What was the message that the little tree had whispered in his dream. For it seemed to him that he understood what it was that he was to find here where the pine had pointed.

The morning sunlight was over the hills, giving a radiance to waving grass and the white stone piles, the stream that came out of the rocks bubbled and murmured pleasantly.

You told me that in honors there was joy.
And I, poor fool, believed you as I scanned Each plantain tree to pluck the luscious fruit.

Good Bye, Old Earth!
You laugh at me. Well have your little joke.
You've laughed at all my kind for ages past.

Good Bye, Old Earth!
And now I laugh at you, and all your wiles.
Your promises—the game you play so well.

Good Bye, Old Earth!
I'm through.

Do Not Neglect

The Bad Cold OF TO-DAY

IT MAY BE SERIOUS TO-MORROW

May Develop into Bronchitis, Pneumonia and perhaps Consumption.

Miss Mary Prouse, R.R. No. 1, Cedarvale, Ont., writes: "I had the influenza in November last, and it left me with a terrible cough. I did not attend to it until it got so severe people warned me it was time to see about it.

Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup has years, and stands out by itself as a remedy for all coughs and colds.

wrapper; 3 pint tins (the trade mark);

Anger is a Dangerous Disease

A distemper is a disease. Upon the heat and flame, the inflammation of your distemper, a sprinkle of health and happiness in the form of patience may heal your sore. It is the remedy for the great despair.

Anger is a short, sharp, acute disease that makes for mismanagement, disorder, mistakes and troubles of all sorts.

The angriest person in a discussion or controversy is very apt to be the sickest, and therefore, most liable to be in the wrong.

Shakespeare knew pathology, beyond his day when he averred that "a woman moved is like a mountain troubled, muddy, ill-ooming, thick, bereft of beauty."

You can accomplish little when angry.

Anger is an affection akin to madness, a compound of folly and pride. In its symptoms there is an intention to do commonly more harm and mischief than the invalid ill with it can bring to pass.

Without a doubt, of all the emotional diseases which actually disturb the physical stability of man, anger is most powerful in disturbing both mental and physical health. The toxins or poisons generated is a spell of anger are recognizable by chemical and physiological tests.

Prof. Walter Cannon of Harvard university and Dr. George W. Crille of the Lakeside hospital, Leweland, are able to detect it in the blood, the brain and the spleen. Experiments by them and other laboratory investigators prove that poison is produced by anger.

Plainly you cannot be both sound physically and angry—both well and poisoned at the same time.

Take anyone, torment him until he is in a state of frenzy, take a drop of blood from the me thus enraged, inject that dry into the body of a small animal and the latter will die almost instantly, actually poisoned, killed by poison of anger.

Rage actually changes the blood and other fluids of man and beast, poisons the textures, causes inflammation of the brain and absolute distortion of the spirit. It brings with it bad judgment, hatred, meanness and cruelty.

Anger in its different forms and expressions varies all the way from actual insanity, the victim of his own rage not knowing what he is doing, to cold subtle cruelty and malignity.

THE AFTER EFFECTS OF THE "FLU"

Has Left Many Weak Hearts.

This terrible scourge has left in its train weak hearts, shattered nerves, and a general run-down condition of the systems.

Thousands of people, throughout Canada, are now needing the timely use of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills to counteract the effects of this trouble which a short time ago swept our country.

Mrs. C. C. Palmer, Keppel, Sask., writes:—"I wish to inform you of the great good Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills did for me. After a bad attack of the 'Spanish Influenza,' my heart and nerves were left in a very bad condition.
I got two boxes of your pills and I must say they are the best I ever used, and I have taken a great many different kinds.
I will always keep Heart and Nerve Pills in the house."

Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills are 50c. a box. For sale by all dealers, or

Canadian National Railways--

OPERATING ONE HOUR EARLIER

Important Daylight Saving Change of Time at 2 a. m. Sunday, March 30, 1919

All clocks and watches used in operation of Canadian National Railway will at 2 a. m. Sunday, March 30th, be advanced one hour. To prevent serious confusion and inconvenience to the public the attention of all concerned is directed to the following conditions resulting from the important change of time:

If cities, towns, villages and other municipal bodies do not change their local time to correspond with the new Railway time, all concerned should keep in mind that while trains continue to leave Railway Stations on present schedule, such schedule will be operated one hour ahead of present local time. Therefore any municipality where local time is not changed to correspond with the new Railway time, passengers must reach Railway Station ONE HOUR EARLIER than shown in current folders and public time posters.

Where municipal time is changed to correspond with the new Railway time, passengers will not experience difficulty growing out of the change. April 2 1919
