TUESDAY, June 15th, 1915.

Seventh Centenary of Magna Charta.

This week is one of important historic memories. Yesterday was the anniversary of the battle of Naseby, in which the forces of the English Commons inflicted a decisive defeat on the Royalists in the fight for Parliamentary power in 1645. It also marks the triumph of the French over the Austrians at Marengo in 1800.

To-day is the greatest anniversary of all in the history of the fight for English liberty. It is no mere anniversary or even a mere centenary, but the Seventh Centenary of the signing of Magna Charta, which the Barons in arms forced upon King John on the field of Runnymede on June 15th, 1215. History calls it "the keystone of English liberty." It was the greatest of the earlier blows struck for freedom by the Barons, the Church and the people against arbitrary powers which had grown up under the feudal system around the King and his Court followers. Anson says "The importance of the charter in the history of the royal prerogatives consists in the definiteness and permanence which it gave to the promises of the Coronation Oath. From the moment that John assented to the terms submitted to him by the Barons, the rights of the subject ceased to depend on the power of good will of the King.
Every freeman was henceforth entitled to freedom from arbitrary taxation and arbitrary punishment, and could refer for protection of his rights not to the vague promises of the Coronation Oath but to the formulated definition of liberties in the Charter."

This week also includes the centenary of the final overthrow of Napol-eonism after its resurrection from Elba. To-morrow is the centenary of the fight at Quatre Bras which marked the failure of Marshal Ney to drive in the wedge which Napoleon intended to keep apart the forces under Wellington and Blucher, and Friday the 15th is the centenary of Waterloo when militarism under Napoleon was finally overthrown. To-morrow is also the anniversary of Marengo, a place in Bavaria, where George II. gained a victory in 1743. Thursday is St. Alban's Day, the anniversary of the martyrdom of the first Christian martyr in Britain. It is also the anniversary of the battle of Bunker's Hill in 1775, the success of which paved the way to American independence of Great Britain.

Friday besides being the centenary of Waterloo is the anniversary of the outbreak of the last war between Great Britain and the United States, although another war fifty odd years later was nearly precipitated by the ravages of the Alabama, built at Birkenhead during the civil war, the anniversary of the sinking of which is on Saturday. Our enemies of those days are our greatest friends of today and it is satisfactory to feel that British blood and treasure is to-day as freely spent for freedom and liberty as it was in the days of the greatest struggles whose memory is brought before us this week.

NOTE OF THANKS.—Mr. and Mrs.
Richard Rogers wish to thank Drs.
Keegan, Knight and Cowperthwaite and nurses of the General Hospital for their kind treatment and attendant to their little son, Thomas, who was accidentally shot, and they also take this opportunity of thanking all kind friends who sent wreaths to adorn his casket and all who sym-pathized with them in their sad bereavment—adv.

315th Day of the War.

LATEST From the Front

GERMAN STATION SURRENDERS.

LONDON, To-day.
Garua, an important German station on the Venue River, in German West Africa, has surrendered unconditionally to an Anglo-French force on June 11, says the Governor General of Nigeria in a telegram to the Colonial Office.

VENIZELLOS VICTORY.

LONDON, To-day.
An Athens despatch says: So far as is known 172 of Venizelos' adherents have been elected 59 Government candidates and independents are returned. Seventy-four seats in Macedonia have not yet been received.
Complete returns, however, are certain to give a majority for the ex-Premier.

THE BULGARIAN SNAG.

ROME, To-day.
A despatch from Sofia says, M. Fili-pesco, Leader of Roumanian Conservatives declared to-day that the Quadruple Entente Powers (Britain, France, Russia and Italy) have agreed to the demands of Roumanian and understanding for the intervention of Roumanian in the war is imminent.
Greece and Serbia will send an identical note of the Bulgarian Premier and his Cabinet declining the proposals of the Quadruple Entente Powers for the cession of Macedonia territory to Bulgaria. The correspondent of the Giornale D Italia in a despatch adds: "I am assured Greece and Serbia are sending a note of protest to the Great Powers, declaring it is impossible to accept a Balkan understanding on such terms. M. Rados-lavoff and his Cabinet will use pressure on Serbia and Greece because the end and conception of the Quadruple Entente was passed on right and just consideration and the national aspirations of the Balkans must prevail."

TREATMENT OF PRISONERS.

BERLIN, To-day.
As a result of American mediation, the exceptional treatment which was being accorded to German submarine boat prisoners in England an equal treatment to his memory. I adjourn this Court until after the obsequies.
Mr. Morine, K.C., the senior member of the Bar present, stated that on behalf of the profession he wished to add a tribute to the memory of the late Judge Knight, who conducted the business of the Court as Acting Judge for many years.
The late Judge whilst not being possessed of some of the brilliant characteristics of some of his predecessors, still he believed that he had been spared a length of years, that by reason of the broadness of his views, his knowledge of human nature, combined with his legal ability, he would have succeeded in establishing a record for himself equal to any of the Judges who had preceded him. He agreed with the bench as to the late Judge's qualities as a friend and a good citizen.

PEACEFUL OUTCOME LIKELY.

WASHINGTON, To-day.
President Wilson feels encouraged by the reports that pending negotiations between Germany and the States most likely will have a peaceful outcome. Those who have discussed the situation with the President and other officials the last day or two have found the belief prevalent that the chances for an amicable understanding with Germany are much better than they have been at any time since the Lusitania tragedy.
This feeling it is understood is based both on official and unofficial reports from Berlin, telling of the favourable reception there of the American note and on the hope too that the despatches carried by Count von Bernstorff from Count von Bernstorff German Ambassador, will impress German officials with the American point of view.
It is feared the President does not plan to send another note to Britain protesting against interference with commerce between the States and neutral countries in Europe, until the discussion with Germany has shaped itself more clearly.

11.30 A.M.

RECOVERY DOUBTFUL.

MONTREAL, To-day.
Monsignor Langevin, Archbishop of St. Boniface, Manitoba, is seriously ill here. His recovery is doubtful.

JACK MONROE WOUNDED.

OTTAWA, To-day.
The casualty list to-day includes the name of John A. Monroe, Princess Patricias, severely wounded. This is Jack Monroe, one time prize fighter.

GERMAN STEAMER CONDEMNED.

The Prize Court condemned the Hamburg-American Line steamer, Belgia, seized at the beginning of the war at Newport, Monmouthshire.
The Captain of the Belgia contended he did not know war had been declared when he entered Newport.

SIR EDWARD GREY AS A FISHER- MAN.

NEW YORK, To-day.
A despatch from a staff correspondent in London to the American, says Sir Edward Grey, who according to an official announcement is taking a vacation to rest his eyes, is not likely to get much rest, if reports current in diplomatic circles here, are based upon truth. It is said Sir Edward has gone to Bucharest to bring about the intervention of Roumania in war on the side of the Allies, in the same way he went to Rome about Easter time to bring Italy, although it was then announced he had gone fishing. He landed a big fish on that visit and is expected to be equally successful in his present venture. It is a safe prediction that in a week or so something will be heard from Roumania that will be pleasant news to the Allies.

CREW SAFE.

CARDIFF, To-day.
The crew of the British steamer Hopemouth, sunk by a submarine off St. Ives, arrived here. The men report the Germans shelled them while they were taking to their boats and that the Captain and three members of the crew are wounded.

PORTUGUESE CABINET CRISIS.

LONDON, To-day.
A despatch from Lisbon says the Portuguese Cabinet presented its resignation, but that it has not been accepted.

2.00 P. M.

ELECTIONS WILL SHOW OPINION AND WILL OF PEOPLE.

ROME, To-day.
The elections will show the opinion and will of the people in regard to our national ideals and means for realizing them, was the declaration of Prince George of Greece in a statement discussing the internal situation in his country, issued before his departure from Bari and Piraeus. We are on the eve of an understanding between M. Venizelos and M. Gournaris, he continued, which will settle the future attitude of Greece. Everyone in our country realizes this is no time for internal struggles.

THE HOLLAND BLOCKADE.

The Times Hague correspondent says that from midnight, June 15, the blockade of German and Austrian goods passing through Holland for the United States becomes absolute.

DESTROYED ZEPPELIN AND PAR- SEVAL AIRSHIP.

LONDON, To-day.
The Allies' airmen who raided the Zeppelin sheds in Brussels, June 7, not only destroyed one Zeppelin but one Parseval airship as well. The visit of the airmen created great excitement in the Belgian capital. The raiding airmen, variously estimated from 7 to 11, came at 2 o'clock in the morning. German soldiers opened violent fire but failed to bring down a single airman.

TO SAFEGUARD SHIPPING.

A London cable to the Herald says that the new activity of the German submarine fleet, which has resulted in the sinking of many British ships, is expected to bring forth additional protective measures by the Admiralty. The new First Sea Lord, Admiral Sir Henry B.
Jackson, is known to be devoting much attention to the question. It is believed he will be able to arrange for further safeguards for vessels along the British coasts.
