Foreign Fish Market Active.

A late communication to the Board of Trade from Messrs. Lind and Couto, of Oporto, says that the fish market there is active and that the demand is good notwithstanding the extreme prices now ruling, but we fear any further increase in prices will restrict consumption. The rate of exchange there is 31 1/2d.

Presentation and Address

TO REV. JAMES NURSE ON LEAVING TOPSAIL.

The Rev. James Nurse, Methodist Minister at Topsail, who is about to leave, was the recipient of a gift and address from his parishioners recently, and Mrs. Nurse of a similar mark of esteem from the Girls' Guild. Following are the addresses and replies.

Rev. James L. and Mrs. Nurse.

Topsail Methodist Parsonage.

Dear Mr. and Mrs. Nurse.—We, the members of your congregation, beg that you will accept, the accompanying small gift as a token of our sincere appreciation of your long and faithful service amongst us. While we deeply regret your leaving, we wish to assure you that our good wishes will follow you even in a distant land, and we pray that the eventide may be a happy and peaceful one, and that you may be spared for many years to enjoy a well-earned rest amongst your loved ones.

Wishing you both a safe and pleasant journey, we remain

Your sincere well-wishers,

THE CONGREGATION OF TOPSAIL METHODIST CHURCH.

REPLY.

To the Members of the Methodist Congregation at Topsail.

Dear Friends.—Your kind words of appreciation and goodwill addressed to Mrs. Nurse and myself as we terminate our nine years of service amongst you will be cherished by us as a pleasant memory when we are far away from you. We also heartily thank you for the substantial gift which your generosity has prompted as an expression of your esteem.

Our many failings, of which we are conscious, will serve as a background by which your many acts of kindness will be brought into prominent relief. Your wishes for our future happiness and welfare are sincerely reciprocated. Our new surroundings will not cause us to forget your highest and best interests.

To leave the dear Old Colony where we have laboured for so many years is not easy, but we believe it to be in the order of God's good providence.

We ask your prayers until we meet at home where we hope to be together for ever with the Lord.

Yours in the Master's work,

JAMES NURSE.

Topsail, Sept. 24th, 1917.

Dear Mrs. Nurse.—On this the eve of your departure, we wish to show our appreciation of your work in connection with our Guild. We shall often think of the pleasant afternoons spent at your home and of your interest in our work. While we regret that circumstances make it necessary for you to leave us, we hope that in your new home God's blessing will be with you; and we ask you to accept the accompanying gift as a small token of our affection and appreciation.

You will take with you our best wishes for your happiness.

Wishing you God speed.

We remain, sincerely yours,
THE GIRLS' GUILD.

REPLY.

To the Members of the Girls' Guild, Methodist Church Topsail.

Dear Girls.—It is difficult for me to find words that will fully express the feelings of my heart on this occasion of my departure from you as a Guild worker. But be assured that your encouraging address to me, and the nice gift accompanying the same will be long remembered when I cannot be with you in your cheerful and social meetings when working in the interests of the Church of Christ.

My share of the work in the past I am afraid you have overestimated, but I can say that along that line my duty has been my delight.

I feel sure that your new President will find you in the future to be the same earnest helpers in all matters pertaining to the prosperity of the Guild.

That it may be an increasing prosperity is the prayer of

Your sincere friend,

ELIZABETH J. NURSE.

Cartage Rates

TO COASTAL WHARVES GO UP.

At a meeting of the Truckmen's Union held last night a discussion took place in connection with the carting of freight to the various coastal steamship companies' wharves. It was pointed out that from one to four hours had been lost by carters while waiting to deliver their loads, and to compensate them for their delay they would in future demand $1.00 an hour. The rates paid under the old schedule were not at all satisfactory.

Laid to Rest.

The remains of the late Captain Thomas Fitzpatrick were laid to rest at Placentia yesterday afternoon. Quite a number of friends from the city were present.

The funeral of the late John Doyle took place yesterday afternoon. At the Cathedral the prayers for the dead were recited by Rev. Dr. Carter. Interment being at Bevilacqua.
